

The first annual car wash for Cystic Fibrosis was held at Zellers in the Georgetown Marketplace. While Zellers staff and friends washed and wiped, the Georgetown Kinsmen Club barbecued hot dogs supplied by local grocers. The event was part of the Kinsmen Club's annual campaign for Cystic Fibrosis. Zellers Moonwalk for Cystic Fibrosis, in conjunction with the Georgetown Kinsmen Club, takes place this Sunday. Jim Dandies are rockin' and rollin'

By Betty Sojka

Many thanks go out to Erin Township Councillor Doris Topolsek for sponsoring the May newsletter. Full of village activities, the newsletter was mailed out this week.

The Jim Dandies won both their games last week. Carol Ann See had to sit out the second game after being injured while playing against Nona's Pizza. Heather Bowman started this game with a home run. She also hit a triple and home run while playing against the Panthers on Thursday night.

Vera Longstreet also hit a home run.

During this game it was the pitching of Sandra Prowse that kept the Panthers at bay. She threw strike after strike, with a speed that batters had trouble with. The ladies play Friday at Acton's McKenzie Smith Middle School, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Just a few days left to get those Saturday Karioke Dance Night Tickets. The D.J. is bringing the music to over 700 songs. Tickets are available at the Ballinafad General Store $15 per person. The menu is potluck, so dig out those recipe. A prize will be given for best entertainer. Spot and door prizes will also be awarded. This is also a regular dance and a great variety of music will be provided to shake a leg with. This is a great chance to see what the Karioke craze is all about. The dance starts 9 p.m. at the community centre.

Ballinafad News

There was a large attendance for last week's U.C.W. meeting. Eight members and eight visitors had come out to hear Brian Arsenault speak.

After four weeks of study classes, Ericka Mitchell, Christian

Pinkerton, Cheryl Burt and Brenda Krout were confirmed at the United Church on May 16.

Don't forget to set aside Saturday, June 5 as the clean-up day at the community centre and park. Call Bonnie Walker at 877-6639 or Jim Bailey at 877-6651 for more details.
