Amanda Hynes (left) and Jennifer Armstrong of Georgetown, whooped with glee on the Tilt-A-Whirl, at the Georgetown Optimist Club's 17th annual Bang-O-Rama held over the weekend at the Fairgrounds.

Laura McCarthy let her hair down (and out) as she and friend Jessica Bodig tested their nerves on the Scrambler at the Conklin Midway, part of the Georgetown Optimist Club's Bang-O-Rama held over the Victoria Day weekend.

Jessica Boyer of Georgetown knew just what she was doing at the Goblet Game during Bang-O-Rama held over the weekend at the Fairgrounds.

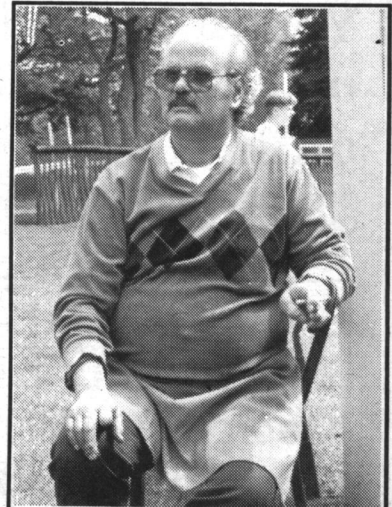

Three-year-old Nicole Friolet of Georgetown, waves to her fans during an obviously enjoyable pony ride at the Georgetown Optimist Club's 17th annual Bang-O-Rama held over the weekend at the Fairgrounds.

Just like driving down Guelph St., according to some observers of the Demolition Derby staged Sunday during the Georgetown Optimist Club's 17th annual Bang-O-Rama.
