Rebs beat curfew to log key win

By Mike Zrostek

The Georgetown District High School Rebels boys baseball team kept their playoff hopes alive, squeaking out a 4-3 win last Thursday over Notre Dame Secondary School of Burlington in dramatic fashion thanks to a screaming liner hit by Steve Onoprijenko.

Fighting the clock due to time duration, the Rebels were down 3-2 with two minutes left with the curfew in effect. The game went to the sixth where the Rebel comeback took place.

Kevin Spears scored to tie the game. Greg Dobbin then doubled and later tried to score on a hit only to be thrown out at the plate on a close call. Onoprijenko then crushed one to the fence to drive in the winner bumping the Rebels record to 2-4.

Coach Bryn Davies called it the most exciting game of the year, "The team played a great game and showed a lot of heart," he said.

Chris Barrow got the win, thanks in part to a great defensive gem by Jeff Sheppard who made a great catch in the fifth with runners on second and third to give the Rebels a chance for the comeback, after starting the inning off with an error.

Adam Poyntz got dinged for the three Notre Dame runs, all unearned.
