Meet the Glen executive

By Wendi Goodhew
Shirley Inglis, President - Shirley lives at the Glen park, anyway, she might just as well be the boss. Wayne Norton, Vice-President - Wayne is another person who makes his second home at the Glen park, he is very dedicated to kids; Linda Armstrong, Treasurer - Linda is a good one to look after the money. I hope she invests it wisely and not at bingo or in Vegas; Lynn Lafleur, Secretary - Lynn is an active ball player herself, playing in the powder puff league; Carol Telford, exec. member - Carol has been around for years helping in any area she is needed; Cindy Crawford, exec. member - Cindy is into all sports. She is one awesome catcher; Judy Cox, exec. member - Judy is new to the team. She is willing to dive in; Gail LaBranche, exec. member - Gail is also new but learning fast about the work; Dave Ward, exec. member - Dave is a past coach and a long time Glen boy. He is known for his picture-taking in the past; Ron Le Flamme, exec. member - Cindy was the Glen pitcher in her time. No one could chuck the ball like Cindy, although maybe in the future her son will;

Jackie Inglis, exec. member - Jackie is also a new member and a real go-getter.
It was worth the drive to Acton on May 18 when the Glen Atom girls drove on to beat Acton, 17-6. Leading the attack for the Glen was Megan Rowlands with a home run. Kim LaFlamme smoked the ball by many Acton players when she pitched three innings of no-hit ball. Meagan Rowlands also pitched two strong innings to contribute to the win. As the score shows, all Glen players had a heyday at bat during this game.

Coaches Beth Haines and Ron LaFlamme were especially proud of the batting performances turned in by this year's rookies Trisha Jones, Sheena Switzer and Jessica Atwell.
Coach Jim Hall had his team of Atom boys revved and in top form for their game against Hornby. The Glen downed Hornby 10-8 in an exciting battle to the end. Daniel Kaay ended the first and third innings with a pair of great catches. Matthew Gray and Josh Inglis drove in RBI's for their contribution to the win. Mike Hall made a sensational catch at shortstop to retire a Hornby player. Josh Inglis had enough of Hornby crossing home plate, so with two out, he made a great catch to end the game.

DID YOU KNOW?
with Len Dodds
FORGED VS. INVESTMENT CAST

The major advantage of a cast club is the consistency of quality. The master molds can be used time and time again, retaining the exact shape and character almost forever.
It also insures tolerances for the clubhead shape, weight, and the loft and lie every time. Cast clubs, because they are made from stainless steel, do not rust and are less susceptible to bending during use.
Over 80% of clubs used today are investment cast. In a recent survey, over 60% of touring pros, both men and women play with cast clubs. These numbers seem to support the theory that more and more younger players are playing cast clubs.
Obviously, perimeter weighting and investment casting are here to stay. Ultimately golfers must resort to the usual variables when deciding between cast or forged irons: design, price, durability, cosmetics, a respect for golf tradition or which manufacturer has the most effective marketing pitch.

*And as the unknown golfer says:
"There are two things you can learn by stopping your backswing at the top and checking the position of your hands: how many hands you have and which one is wearing the glove."*

The most entertaining games to watch in the Glen involve our T-ball teams. They make the impossible seem really easy and sometimes give a whole new set of rules to the game. The T-ball red team took on the T-ball white team. Jason Jacobs, Andrew Jeffries, Scott Buist and Sean Graydon had a good night at bat for the white team while Eric Davies replied for the red team.

Scott Buist put his glove to good use trapping an infield hit and tossing to teammate Andrew Jeffries on first base to tag the runner out.
Game stars were: Jason Jacobs for his two hits to outfield and Andrew Jeffries for his quick tagging on first base. Andrew tagged two runners out.

Jim Hall had his Atom boys A team fired up and ready for action when they played Hornby, beating them 10-8.

Mike Hall had a sensational catch at shortstop and Josh Inglis ended the game with a great catch. Daniel Kaay had two great catches to end the first and third innings. Hitters for this game were Matthew Gray and Josh Inglis who drove in RBI's.

The Glen Atom boys seemed to run into trouble losing 17-1 to Hornby. Great defensive plays by Brian Sorbie, Andy Lewin and Mike Hall.
