Prom night was memorable

By Bryn Davies
Saturday evening, our joint student-staff Grad Prom Committee hosted our 4th annual in-school, alcohol-free prom. The theme was "Victorian Carousel".

The event was an outstanding success. Over 30 students, 35 staff members and a dozen parents took part in transforming the school corridors and cafeterium into a 19th Century carnival, complete with wooden ponies, a mirror ball, streamers, twinkle lights, long gowns, tuxedos, games tables and even a fortune teller.

Of course, limousines and rock music added a modern flavor. Light refreshments, play money for the games tables, souvenirs and door prizes were included for the $25 cost of admission.

I'd like to thank the many staff members who stayed late Friday evening, who worked all day Saturday, who supervised until past 2 a.m. Sunday morning and who returned later the same day to dismantle the props.

Principal's Corner

Their efforts, along with the help of many supportive parents from our Advisory Group and the generous donations of over 50 local businesses helped to make this year's even so memorable. In particular, I'd like to acknowledge the efforts of Mr. Sherlock, Mrs. Cosgrove, Mrs. Bodig and their committee who have been planning the event since last November. As well, I'd like to thank Mr. Hastie, our custodian, and his staff, for their loyal and ongoing support.

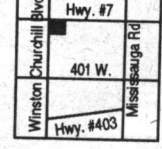

Continuing our celebratory vein, tomorrow evening we will be honoring all of our athletes at our annual Athletic Banquet. This year, Rebel athletes participated on over 30 different teams and over 40 staff volunteered valuable personal time and expertise to coach our young people. For more information about the awards evening, you may want to contact your son or daughter's coach at the school.
