

Rebels won't be 'Repeating'

By Mike Zrostek

Heavily favored to win another Halton softball championship, Georgetown District High School girls softball Rebels were upset by E.C. Drury of Milton in semi-final action Monday, 9-2 at the Fairgrounds.

The Rebels, undefeated through the regular season, booted the ball all over the field which enabled Drury to score seven runs in the fifth, leading to the Rebel demise.

A couple of early runs came across in the second for the Rebels on a two out double by Stacey Colarossi after the Rebels loaded the bases with none out.

Shannon Morris pitched another strong game for the Rebels striking out seven in her four innings of work, giving up one run.

The game was a close affair until the fifth when a mixture of solid hits and bunts by Drury and some sloppy fielding by the Rebels put GDHS into a hole. They were shelled for seven runs which made it 8-2 in favor of Drury. They never did recover as the Rebel bats were held in check throughout the game while Drury made the necessary defensive plays when it counted.

Coach Bob Hastie said the Rebels had a chance to win it and pointed to the second inning as the big reason they didn't. "We let them off the hook in the second when we loaded the bases with none out and it cost us. I thought both pitchers (Shannon Morris and Sharron Striger) pitched good. The defense just didn't help them. You aren't going to win when you make those many (six) errors," said Hastie.

Obviously disappointed at the final result, Hastie said the girls have nothing to be ashamed. He said this season was a good one. Hastie credits coaches Mr. Coon and Mr. Watson as well as Mr. Kotani with the girls' success this year.

Hastie thinks the girls should be competitive next year, as only five players from this year's team will not be returning. Also, he feels, there will be some good young talent coming to the team next year.

Rebs still up after provincials

By Mike Zrostek

They didn't finish in the upper bracket at the Ontario Federation of School Athletic Associations provincial track and field meet held in Oshawa last Friday and Saturday, but the 12 Georgetown District High School athletes should still be proud of their placings, according to coach Bevin Clark.

The Rebels competed in cold rainy conditions Saturday that were less than ideal for track and field and better suited for soccer.

"The weather was really bad, the javelin athletes had to stand around in the cold with mitts on and throw without a warm-up," said Clark.

With 24 athletes from around the province competing in each event, the Rebs placings were fairly respectable.

Scott Hobbs finished ninth in the senior boys long jump, Matt Brain was 10th in the junior boys javelin, and Rick Vivian placed 15th in the midget boys 800-metres.

The girls had Karen Walker take 12th in the midget girls triple jump, Lisa McDonald was 15th in the midget girls javelin, Alexis Kerr finished 15th in the senior girls 400-metres and Kristy Johnson was 13th in the senior girls 3000 metres.

Clark was very impressed with the 4x400 metre relay team of Alexis Kerr, Becki Couling, Jen Murray and Andrea LeBannister who knocked four seconds off their best time at the southwestern regionals, to finish 15th in a time of 4:13 seconds.

"Not many schools can say they brought 12 athletes to this meet, who worked especially hard in the short period of time they have. It's hard to compete against athletes from clubs who practice year round. We pretty well start in April," said Clark.

Clark said his charges are already looking forward to next year, "It's nice to see the kids talking about next year and improving on this year's times, it gets you excited and ready for next year."

Standard Products 29, Halton Women's Teachers Federation (H.W.T.F.) 15

Slow start by H.W.T.F., having a powerful 2nd and 3rd inning but decided to take a nap in the last inning and let Standard run away with the game. Tanya Carson caught a pop fly to make a double play. Game stars for H.W.T.F. were Miranda Dyke and Jodi Buck, for their home runs. Standard Products had a good game by the whole team. Starting off the game with the first batter Devon Reynolds smacking a home run. One home run by Kendra Hiltz, with two home runs each for Ionia Moreland and Robyn Williams. Good hitting, girls!
