Georgetown Pizza Hut manager Mike Stultz (second from left), shows off the new bicycle he won in a random draw in the restaurant challenge category of the May 30 Halton Hills Bike-a-thon. Anne Sidebottom (right), community relations co-ordinator of the North Halton Association for the Developmentally Handicapped, which sponsored the bike-a-thon, and Tom Politi (second from right), chair of the bike-a-thon committee, presented Stultz with his prize. The bicycle was one of three donated by Ollie Tichel (left) of Ollie's Cycle in Georgetown. To qualify for the third prize, participants of the bike-a-thon must have their pledge money at the Bank of Montreal in the Georgetown Marketplace by June 19.
