Legion track and field meet attracts rave reviews

By Colin Gibson

"Just a great day," enthused track and field coordinator Peter Smith, as the 2nd annual Georgetown Branch 120 Royal Canadian Legion track and field meet, staged at Georgetown District High School Saturday, wound down with twilight beckoning.

Upwards of 260 youngsters from 12 Georgetown and area elementary schools took part in the day-long affair, staffed, coordinated and run by both Legion member volunteers and volunteers from the general public.

The only school which did not respond to an invitation to have its said, "things went well. It was a tremendous success and a wonderful, although tiring, day for all of us."

Gary Southworth, for his work on the track events and Leanne Hall, for her work in the refreshment tent, were singled out for special thanks as well as Marjorie and Chuck Tutty, who coordinated the final results.

All involved couldn't have asked for a better day. Sunny, but not overly warm, with the occasional refreshing breeze.

The refreshment tent provided cover for those who wanted to get out of the sun and all competing youngsters received tickets for two free hot dogs as well as a soft drink.

Carol Merten and Jim Blampied of the Halton Hills Unit of St. John Ambulance were on hand all day in case they were needed, and Dan Wagstaffe of Troopers D.J. Entertainment service provided a van with a P.A. system.

A tremendous event from the word go, sponsored by Georgetown Branch 120 Royal Canadian Legion.
