Activities galore for Horticultural Society

By Alison Meeks

What a busy few months the Georgetown Horticultural Society has had. In April we honored Queta Percy, Madge Whitefield and Marion Boyle with Lifetime Memberships for their tireless efforts in the society. For Earth Day we planted a flowering Almond shrub at the Bennett Centre. Scott Beaudion for Weall & Cullen came to speak to us April 21 on Preparing your garden for Spring.

On May 14 we had our annual Plant Auction at Knox Church and we have a lot of generous businesses to thank for their donations; Sheridan Nurseries, Willowcreek Nurseries, Beaver Lumber, Naka, Hodgins Market, John Vanviessen Nurseries, Cachet Gifts, Knechtel Food, Zellers, Webbs Florists, Arnolds, Tuitman's Garden Centre, Epp's Greenhouses, Miracle Mart, IGA, Woolco, Crawfords Country Garden, John DiGirolamos Garden Centre, Georgetown Fruit Market, Vanderburg's Florists, Dutch Nurseries, Mr. Moffat (Norval), Dominion Gardens, Home Hardware, A & P, Loblaw's, DP Liquidators, Image Printing, Tim Hortons, McDonalds and Ivy House Tea Room. I know this was a long list, but we cannot overlook the generosity of these businesses in these tough times.

On May 19 we had our first flower show of the year and at the same time, June Laver spoke to us on Miniature Roses. Mori Miniatures was with June and brought many varieties for us to purchase.

Saturday at Knox Church (during Pioneer Days) we have our June Flower Show, open to the public after 1 p.m. We also have our Strawberry Tea and will have a booth on the main street. Tickets on sale for the Strawberry Tea at the door.

July 17 at the Indoor Mall we have reinstated our July Lily Show. This show will be dedicated to the memory of the late Bob Barber who was a past president of the Georgetown Society and also a Lily hybridizer. If you have any of Bob's bulbs blooming in your garden give me a call and bring them out!

In August, Georgetown Horticultural Society with the Brampton Real Estate Board are having a Garden Competition. We will be judging all kinds of gardens. So no matter what kind of garden you have, if you are proud of it, then enter it in the competition. You could win! On September 15, we will be resuming our regular format of meetings on the third Wednesday of the month. Meetings are open to the public and start at 8 p.m. All meetings are held at Knox Church on Main Street.

Seniors picnic in Acton

Local seniors will soon be joining together for the annual "Picnic in the Park". This event will take place on Thursday, (tomorrow) 12 noon at Prospect Park, Acton.

Hot dogs and drinks will be supplied by Acton IGA for only $1. Afternoon tea will be provided by the Trinity Activity Group. Why not take part in a baseball game, play golf or join in on the balloon toss? You can also enter the Penny Guess Contest or participate in the Autograph Collection.

Come one, come all, be part of the fun. See some long time friends and make some new ones. Everyone is welcome. Come alone or bring a friend as this event promises to be both fun-filled and entertaining for all!

For more information, call Sue at Acton Social Services and Information Centre at 853-3310 or drop into the office at 19 Willow St., N., Acton.
