

Hills residents honored at Senior's Fair

By Oksana Buhel

Six Halton Hills residents were honored at last Saturday's Seniors Safety Fair, held at the Halton Regional Centre in Oakville. The event was attended by more than 2,000 seniors, Region Chairman Peter Pomeroy, Halton Regional Police Services Chief James Harding, municipal mayors and celebrities Sparky the Dog and Ronald McDonald.

Councillor Al Cook, representing mayor Russ Miller, thanked local residents Ross Bethel, Flo Carswell, Lois Fendley, Helen Giguere, Neila Mowat and Les Mellish, for their work on the Halton Hills Seniors Advisory Committee. The committee is one of four municipal committees which counsels the region's Elderly Services Advisory Committee/Good Neighbors Council (ESAC) on issues affecting seniors.

Joanne Kaczmarek, community services and elderly services coordinator, said the committees played important roles in the region's Strategic Planning Study. Their expressed concern about safety inspired the theme of this year's fair. The fair was timed to coincide with senior's month.

Fifty exhibits on crime prevention, fire safety and home adaptations were featured, along with police-conducted safety seminars and tours of police headquarters, an antique car display, aerial firetruck and other safety vehicle demonstrations, and discussion about wills and power of attorney. Entertainment was provided by the Grace Memorial Church Hand Bell Choir, the Oakville Entertainers, Halton Regional Police Choir and the Happy Soles Line Dancers and the Great Pretender.

Japanese students visit Georgetown

For the third summer in a row, Japan is visiting Georgetown.

Cultural Homestay Institute, a non-profit intercultural exchange program, will be bringing 39 Japanese students, ages 18 to 23, to Georgetown this summer between July 13 and August 10. This group of students is from Kyushu University.

The students are visiting Canada in order to improve their conversational English, learn about Canadian culture and, incidentally, to have lots of fun.

English as a Second Language will be taught at Georgetown District High School during the week, with Wednesdays and afternoons reserved for our community and the surrounding area. In addition to the classroom and trips, students will have a Cultural Exchange afternoon in which members of the community and the hosting families will be invited to share ideas, songs, crafts and games with each other.

The homestay portion of the program is seen as being the most valuable aspect of the experience, not only for the students, but for the hosting families as well, as they learn about Japanese culture while the students learn about Canadian ways.

Some of the activities the students will be participating in include a trip to Canada's Wonderland, a visit to Niagara Falls and a Toronto tour. Host Families and their children are welcome to come along with the students on these any many other activities.

Although some of the families for this community are recruited, there are still a few openings. Should you be interested in hosting, please call Judith Gooding at 873-4416 or Marilyn Rognvaldson at 853-0249.

Fabric Care TIPS

THE GREAT IMPOSTER

Rayon is often treated so it has a smooth and lustrous finish which gives it the look and feel of silk.

Rayon is very sensitive to water. Many dyes applied to rayon are not colorfast and will bleed which causes a shading to occur upon contact with moisture. In addition, manufacturers often add sizing to rayon in order to achieve a desired body or drape. Some sizings are water-soluble and washing will distort the shape of the garment. Drycleaning is recommended for most rayon garments because a professional drycleaner is able to solve most of these problems. However, some garments whose care label reads "dryclean only" contain dyes and sizings that are water soluble.

Never try to remove a stain from rayon without first pretesting the fabric. Wet a small piece of the garment on an unexposed seam and allow it to air dry. If no dye or sizing change occurs small stains may be removed in this way. Large stains should always be taken to Barragers Cleaners.
