Lion's Club raise money for charity

By Mike Zrostek

Fifteen teams participated in the Acton Lions Club 5th Annual Service Club Softball Tournament held last weekend raising money for local charities.

Between $2500 and $3,000 was raised for Acton Food Share, Lions International, homes for the deaf, Camp Lake Joseph and sponsorship of minor hockey during the tournament which saw teams from Acton, Georgetown and surrounding areas competing.

The Georgetown Elks Club won the tournament for the second year in a row, defeating the Newfoundland Club 16-5 to take the championship. In the consolation final, the Milton Lions edged the Acton Pretenders 10-9. Doug McMullen of the Georgetown Elks was named Most Valuable Player.

The Acton Lions Club would like to thank Town of Halton Hills Mayor Russ Miller, who threw out the first pitch and also provided some humorous antics, the umpiring crew of both the Reynolds and Rogerson families from Mississauga, Rick Coe and Co. who donated trophies as well as picking the MVP. Tremendous support and fellowship was also displayed by the competing service clubs.

Raising money for charities is the main reason for the tournament, but it is also staged to promote Lionism in Acton by recruiting participants to fit the mould of the "made-up" teams.

The Lions Club would like to continue and build this tournament into a major fundraiser and to increase the membership of a small but growing Acton Lions Club.

Colarossi and Aesch shine

The Little Caesars Orioles defeated the Kendal Mechanical Yankees 20-19 in Georgetown Baseball Association Junior T-Ball action, with Corey Colarossi and David Aesch recording doubles and Spencer Malcovich cracking a home run.

Great defensive plays were turned in by Corey Durham and Bradley Agnew.

Shawn Dunsmore hit his first home run in the Armstrong Insurance win over Nature's Scene Dodgers 24-15.

Doubles were hit by Jordan White, Amanda MacDonald, Keith Barfoot, Julie Newberry and two by Ryan Gray. Defensive gems were made by Bobby Burke, Steven Kerr and Brent Laplante.
