Longhorns stampede through Muscle Pit

By Colin Gibson

Two tight games, which could have gone either way, and a laugh, highlighted play in the Georgetown Men's Flag Football League last Sunday at the GDHS field.

Longhorns romped over new league entry Muscle Pit 42-0 to remain undefeated after three games atop the loop standings; Dawgs squeezed by Meznic Electric 15-14 and M&M Pro Sports just nudged Plus Welding, 16-15.

Longhorns 42 Muscle Pit 0

The iron-pumping crew got a lesson in the facts of flag football life Sunday and the lesson was - if you want to just graze in the grass in this league you're going to get trampled.

The 'Horns came out with nostrils flaring and before the Pit crew could get out of their tank tops and give out with their rallying cry of "Win one for Arnie", the game was over.

There is a rumor that Muscle Pit did, however, win the pre-game coin toss. Unfortunately, they chose to play the game rather than retire with honor.

Longhorns led 28-0 at the half and pawed for 14 more second half points to win the lopsided 42-0 affair.

Jim Lindsay continued his hot scoring streak with 13 points, Rob Rivers scored eight points, Bob Davey and Mark Hamilton each scored majors, Dave Patterson boot-ed two singles and Bill Taylor added a single.

Mark Hamilton and Bob Davey had interceptions for the 'Horns.

M&M 16 Plus Welding 15

The inability to finish off long drives with points on the board once more plagued the Welders in this tough loss.

Plus Welding led 7-6 at the half, courtesy of a Dave Civiero touch-down converted by Jeff Coullighan;

Mark McKeon counted a major for M&M.

McKeon was the main difference in the second half - and the game for that matter - as he got the M&M bunch on the board early and kicked a long single late in the game, which proved to be the difference in this tight contest.

McKeon had 13 points for the winners, with Richard Garden adding a field goal.

Jeff Coullighan had seven points for Plus Welding, Dave Civiero counted a major, with Brent Hughes adding a two-point convert.

Coullighan had an interception to go with his scoring points, while Mike Henderson had a pick-off for M&M.

Dawgs 15 Meznic 14

The defending league champion Dawgs were caged and ready for the pound in this contest, but Meznic just short-circuited in the late going to let the mutts scurry home breathing a weary bark of relief.

Dawgs don't seem to be playing with the same intensity or 'go for the throat' drive thus far this young season that they have displayed in years past and were there for the muzzling in this match-up.

Meznic welcomed back Gary Lockwood into the fold and appeared to be leading comfortably, 14-8 at the half.

Whatever offensive magic Meznic had going for them in the first half, disappeared at halftime and the Dawgs pulled out the win by the skin of their canine teeth.

With less than five minutes to go in the game, a Meznic scoring drive was stopped on the four-yard line and with only four plays left, Dawgs Dave Clements picked off an errant Hal Hulme toss deep in the Dawgs end to put a dogs collar on the game.

Hal Hulme and Herb Hulme, scored majors for Meznic, with brother Howie adding a two-point convert.

Dennis Hanley counted eight scoring points for the Dawgs, John Egan scored a major and Frank Bruno kicked a convert.

Upcoming Games (Sunday, June 20)

8:45 a.m. - Longhorns vs Meznic
10:00 a.m. - Dawgs vs Plus Welding
11:15 a.m. - M&M vs Muscle Pit
