Diabetes meetings

The Halton and area diabetes support group hold their meetings on the last Wednesday of each month (7 p.m.) at 328 Guelph St., Georgetown. Everyone is welcome. For more information, call Jim Akers at 873-3377 before 5 p.m.

Learn to speak effectively

Do you envy people who are able to express themselves effectively? Then why not do something about it? Visit a toastmasters club and learn how you can become a great speaker. You'll be a welcome guest and enjoy every minute of it. Halton Hills Toastmasters meet at 7:30 p.m. on Mondays at Glen Williams Town Hall.

Avoid waste

For your next group meeting avoid disposable cups. Wastewise has ceramic mugs to borrow or purchase. Wastewise also has many pairs of skates available free of charge for skating clubs and an interesting collection of props for drama productions. Visit us at 3 Armstrong Ave. Wednesday and Thursday 12 to 8 p.m., Friday and Saturday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. If your group would like a tour of Wastewise or a speaker for your meeting, call us at 873-8122.

Microsoft DOS 6.0

Demonstration

The Halton Hills PC User's Group (HHPCUGA) is sponsoring a demonstration of the recently released Microsoft DOS 6.0. Alec Saunders, Microsoft's Marketing Manager for DOS, will be doing the presentation to the HHPCUGA. DOS 6.0 adds file compression and better memory management to the Personal Computer Disk Operating System, features that were not available in DOS 5.0. There is no charge for this important demo but available space is limited, reservations are required if you wish to attend. Please call Moe Lamothe, 877-8664.

New in town

The Halton Hills Newcomers Club is open to women who have resided in Halton Hills less than three years. We are a non-profit, non-denominational social organization formed to welcome new residents and to make their transition into a new neighborhood as smooth as possible. We have a variety of events and activities to include your partner and children. Ladies meet at 8 p.m. on the third Wednesday of each month at the Glen Williams Town Hall. Please call Wendy Robins at 877-1573 for more information.
