

Acton bantams split pair

In Acton fastball action last week, Entertainment Tonite's bantam boys played twice coming up with a win and a loss.

On Wednesday, the boys traveled to Campbellville with substitute coach Pam Reynolds. Dave Dolliver had a big night with a home run, a double and three RBI's. Gavin Hall was superb again in left field in both games. Ryan Valente connected with a single and two RBI's. Nonetheless, final score Campbellville

On Thursday, Waterdown visited Acton. Jeremy Wallace, Eric Behling and Corey Lindsay scored singles. Lindsay also doubled, along with Steve White, Mike Moulard and Shawn Hopkins. Great defensive plays by Derek Tribe to tag out a runner stealing second; and in the very next inning by Al Reynolds at first base left Waterdown stranded with bases loaded. Final was Acton 10 - Waterdown 8.

The wizards of Hog Town

By Rod Beaumont

Who is that shortstop? Many questioned Pat Gillick when he brought Tony Fernandez back to the Blue Jay organization, myself included.

Tony has been nothing less than spectacular. Batting at a .380 clip and showing the defensive skills that a once-young Fernandez thrilled us with.

The New York Mets must be shaking their heads, wondering who lit a stick of dynamite under his butt while they got stuck with a dud in Jackson.

Toronto fans are truly blessed because the old saying "when they made him, they threw away the mold"

Rodent's Racket

doesn't hold water in this case.

In the winter, we had Cliff Fletcher to dazzle us with trades, now the Gillick magic is shining bright again and who knows if McCarthy of the Argos has taken a page out of these two gentlemen's books and pulled another blockbuster with the monster trade he made with Edmonton earlier this year. Only time will tell.

Local residents, Mike Hudson and Adam Bennett, were left unprotected by their respective teams, Edmonton and Chicago in the '93 expansion draft.

Although extremely talented, neither were selected by the Panthers and the Mighty Ducks.

Local Georgetown Raiders graduate Mike Wilson was selected 20th by Vancouver in the junior draft on Saturday in Quebec.

Good luck to all these players at becoming a household name in the NHL.

Former Raider heads west

By Colin Gibson

Former Georgetown Chrysler Raider Junior 'B' defenseman Mike Wilson of Brampton, was picked by Vancouver Canucks in the first round - 20th overall - in Saturday's 1993 NHL Entry Draft staged in Quebec City.

Wilson, an 18-year-old who has grown to 6-feet, 5-inches and 215-pounds, patrolled the blueline for the Raiders during the 1991-92 campaign.

In 41 games with the Raiders, he scored nine goals and collected 13 assists while logging 65 minutes in the 'sin bin'.

Drafted in the sixth round, 85th overall, by the Sudbury Wolves of the OHL in the 1992 OHL Priority Draft, Wilson appeared in 53 games in the northern Ontario hockey hotbed and scored six goals, along with seven assists, while amassing 58 penalty minutes.

His being picked by the Canucks is a feather in the cap for the Raider organization, and rightly so.

Opti-Mrs. burn Brampton

By Ruth D. Taylor

The Acton High School soccer field was a lush, well-cut green pitch with great chalked lines, and corner flags as the Under-15 Girls Georgetown and Acton soccer team met the Brampton Cooper Lighting team.

Because of the vandalism risk, the girls and the coaches have to hand and remove the great soccer nets. After some dexterity manipulating the nets on the crossbars, the game was under way.

The game was well-played and the teams evenly balanced. If the game were football, several field goals would have been scored. Players on both sides are working at lowering their great kicks to be under the crossbar. A good Brampton shot by Leanne Ward was deflected by the left hand fingertips of the Blue Opti-Mrs. goalie, Davina Taylor, then Leanne scored for Brampton after a pass from Kristen Weaver.

Jenn Shields replied with a goal for Opti-Mrs. after a pass from Kim Moore. Kim bounced one off the goal post which Erin O'Leary passed to Amanda Devries, who scored.

Opti-Mrs. Jenn Shields shot another in after a pass from Erin and then, after a nice setup pass from Courtney Norman, Erin O'Leary aimed a sure shot for the back of the net and got her first goal of the season for the Georgetown and Acton side.

Red Brampton keeper Lisa Antezza was busy catching shots helped by a strong Brampton defense of Rashmi Menezed, Laura DeLeonardis, and Danielle Ungara. Hana Weinwurm, Deena Mistry and Katie Ward were active as strikers.

The final score was 4-1 for the Blue Opti-Mrs.
