Volunteers are needed to clean up Branch

Acton Legion

By Harry Norton
Branch 614 from Agincourt arrived on schedule last Wednesday, had lunch and spent the afternoon playing cards, singing and line dancing on the patio. They had planned shopping but agreed it was still "Worth the Drive to Acton".

There were only two tables of bridge and the winners were Kathleen Stoke, Dot Norton and Lil Housen. Come down Wednesday and join this group.

The Euchre, normally played every Thursday, was canceled because of the Canada Day Holiday. It will be back on its regular day next Thursday. Everybody welcome.

The fireworks display put on by the volunteer firemen was outstanding with applauding crowds at Lakeview, Prospect Park, and at the Legion. The parking lot was filled as well as the side streets. I don't know who ate the most hot dogs at the Legion — the children or their parents or grandparents. An enjoyable evening to celebrate Canada's 126th Birthday.

The regular beef draw was well-attended on Saturday and we list below the lucky winners:

Early Bird - Ab Irwin and John Robson

Regular — Allan Gordon, John Toebes, R. Fellows, Neil Tulford (twice), Keith Andrews, Ab Irwin, John Robson, Pearl Baker, John Chillman, Bob

Doyle and Bob Angel.

Large Prize — John Chillman.

If no one volunteers to sell tickets, the beef draw till end July 24.

COMING EVENTS

July 7, Wednesday - Bridge

July 8, Thursday - Euchre
Aug. 21- Corn roast and dance

Sept. 11 - Legion Masters Golf Tournament, Members only. Tickets at the bar, $35.00.

Lots of other events planned for September so keep your appointment book open.

MISCELLANEOUS

We have two draws better than all your lotteries. The 50-50 draw is drawn every day and requires you signing in every time you visit the branch. The Loonie draw is drawn once a week and only requires you being there on the day you sign in. Over $1,000 in these two draws — aren't you sorry, Shorty, you didn't sign in?

Now that the ladies have finished their Spring Cleaning, it is time to clean up the Branch and do some painting. Give Gary Mundy or Keith Andrews a call and volunteer to help clean up your Branch. Help is needed every Sunday morning until the job is done.

See you at the Branch!

Children's Aid faces cuts

Oakville and regional councillor Kevin Flynn has served notice that the Children's Aid Society in Halton can't afford to have $41,000 cut from its budget.

Flynn, who is a board member and past-president of CAS, told Halton region council he understood that Children's Aid Societies will be "unscathed" in the province's expenditure control plan.

However, regional chief administrative officer John Burke said all departments, including the CAS, will be affected by the plan.

The region has instructed all of its departments, boards and commissions to cut 2.2 per cent from their 1993 budgets to comply with provincial demands that municipal governments cut back spending. Initial approval of regional department cutbacks was given by regional council at its meeting last week.

Flynn said the CAS has a legal obligation to look after all of the children who require help, even if it means going over budget.

GLT helps charities

By Peter Roe

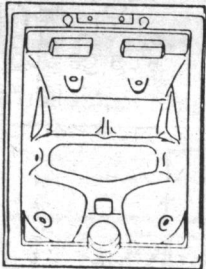

The 1993/94 Georgetown Little Theatre season will soon be upon us, and with it the opportunity for charitable organizations to receive the proceeds from three benefit nights GLT is offering. Next season's playbill includes "The Foreigner", a comedy by Larry Shue, "An Inspector Calls", a mystery by J.B. Priestley and "The Gingerbread Lady", a comedy/drama by Neil Simon.

Interested organizations may submit their applications to Georgetown Little Theatre at 33 Stewarttown Road, Georgetown, Ontario, L7G 4S5, and must apply before July 9 to be considered.
