Terry's dream

The Annual Terry Fox Run will take place across Canada on Sunday, September 19, 1993.

Thirteen years ago, on April 12, 1980 in St. John's, Newfoundland, Terry Fox began his Marathon of Hope - the hope for a cure for cancer. He ran 5,564 km in 143 days before his run was halted due to cancer spreading to his lungs. Although his life sadly ended on June 28, 1981, one month short of his 23rd birthday, his dream has never died.

This year's Georgetown committee is already in the midst of preparing for this worthy cause. With your help, we know that we will surpass all previous donations and make Terry's dream come true.

To make the 1993 Terry Fox Run an unparalleled success, we would like to appeal to the Georgetown business community for monetary or prize donations. Any donations are welcomed and all sponsors will be recognized at the run site.

For more information, please call Bruce Moncrieff at 877-9419.
