

E.T. Bants take two on the road

Acton Entertainment Tonite's Bantam Boys won two-out-of-three games on the road last week.

July 5 in Waterdown, it was a pitcher's duel. Shawn Hopkins pitched an excellent game for Acton with a total of nine strikeouts. Louis Mastro then took over the mound and delivered five strikeouts. Corey Lindsay came out with a double and Greg Richmond added a single. Final score Acton 4, Waterdown 3.

On Tuesday night in Kilbride, Acton suffered a big loss. Shawn Hopkins and Dave Dolliver contributed two home runs each. Play of the game happened in the second inning with a great catch by Steve White and a quick throw to Louis Mastro at 1st base to tag the Kilbride runner. Nonetheless, final score Kilbride 13, Acton 7.

Then on Sunday night, rain delayed the game twice as the boys traveled to Campbellville. Great pitching once again by Hopkins and Mastro. Chris Young was right on in centre field snagging a pop fly in the 6th inning. Eric Behing, Steve White and Louis Mastro contributed singles. Greg Richmond netted a double and two RBIs. Dave Dolliver added a single and a triple. Game called on account of rain in the top of the 7th inning. Final Score Acton 5, Campbellville 0.

Glen bants trim Puslinch

There were some heart-stopping moments, but the Glen Williams bantam boys, behind some strong relief pitching by David Leslie, held off Puslinch, 17-13 in a game played July 6 in Morriston.

Jim Norton put one over the fence to get the Glen started on the right foot, behind starter Ken Armstrong.

Danny Hope also tagged a home run and played well at shortstop, with Tyler Patriquin joining the four-bagger parade.

Brady Davies made a fine sliding catch and Gary McNiven played a strong game at shortstop.

Ailing Steve Jackson did some good hitting, as did Andy Telford who also played well at first base.

Glen gals split pair

The Glen Williams squirt girls split a pair of high-scoring games recently against Milton.

On June 22, the Glen squad prevailed 16-10, with Kathryn Perdue getting Player of the Game honors and Kristin Boyle and April Everingham being selected the Offensive and defensive stars.

Kristin hit two solid doubles and Michelle Gelok made a great steal of home.

April was outstanding on the mound as was Melissa Casson and Kara Edwards.

Kathryn and Kristin played solid behind the plate.

On June 24, Milton notched a 19-17 win.

Jennifer Cabral played great in the field; while April Everingham made a nice ground ball stop and tossed to Jennifer Cabral for the out.

Roadies hit soft spot

By Sandy Sperduti

The Timeout Roadhouse Roadies took the low road as coaches Ivan "Buster" Johnston and Chris Scotford guided McEachern Steering to a well-deserved 4-2 victory over the boys in blue at Cedarvale July 7.

Led by heads-up play by Rob Topping, who netted two, Martin Johnston and Derrick Cayley each with one, the McEachern forwards were a constant threat.

Ken Armstrong, the Roadies keeper did well to held them at four.

John Bilik at midfield, turned back advances by the blue forwards, who managed to score two; one each by Jeff Pringle and Ryan Taylor.

"Of course, the two disallowed goals and the extra 10 minutes added to the first half, did nothing to help our cause", stated a visibly frustrated Roadies coach, John Delguidice, "but I still see these two teams as the cup finalists".

The Roadies will try to improve their 2-2-1 record at home tonight, 7 p.m. before a two-game road trip into Brampton's Century and Major Oaks pitches.

• REPAIR & MAINTENANCE COSTS.

"The CAA's 1992 Annual "Autopinion" publication says Toyotas cost less than their competition, even over 5 years.

• RESALE VALUE.
