

Centre Clean-up day is rescheduled

By Betty Sojka

The June 7 Clean-Up Day at the community centre and park ended up being canceled. Organizers did not receive much response, so decided to hold off having the event.

A few hardy souls, including Halton Hills Councillor Robert Heaton, not realizing the day was canceled, came out. A lot of work was accomplished in the small space of a couple of hours. The flower beds were weeded and five large bags of garbage were picked up around the community centre, on the parking lot, and in the park. Inside the community centre several areas were given a good scrubbing. Many thanks to those who came out. Stay tuned for a rescheduled date for a clean-up day.

There is a tree line bordering the property that organizers wish to clear out. They are going to need lots of help.

For Thursday's game, the Jim Dandies started out super against the Marauders.

Kathleen Topolsek got a couple of great deep outfield hits that enabled the ladies to capture a healthy lead. Most of the innings were quick, with not many batters getting to the plate for each team.

Then it came to the 7th inning and the Marauders last bat. They pounded in run after run. The score sat with the Marauders losing by just one run and with a runner on third and two out. Thankfully, the Jim Dandies were able to get that last out to win the game and to stop Coach Jim Bailey's stomach from churning as he watched his team disintegrate.

New members initiation Friday

By Harry Norton

Most of the Wednesday bridge players went on a Seniors Picnic, so the few old faithfuls who showed up caught up on the latest gossip and went home early.

July 15, regular euchre had a good turnout and saw the following winners: 1st - J. Mathews; 2nd - Rita Mcara; 3rd - Martha Richardson and 4th - Jean Miller and Eva Cutting. The hidden winner was Lil Houson.

July 17 Beef Draw Winners are:

Early Birds: E. Gordon, Gus Jefferies;

Regular Draw: Neil Fulford, John Chillman, E. Halliday, Jim McNabb, Marg McNabb, Mrs. Shorty Lowin, Gus Jefferies, Mike Bonds, Don Lamonthe, Sandra Bonds, Bob Agnell, Neil

Acton Legion

Tulford;

Large Draw: Tony Rouse
Volunteers are still needed to sell tickets for some August Saturdays.

COMING EVENTS
July 21 - Bridge; July 22 - Euchre and July 23 - Initiation of about a dozen new members — lunch and dance music after. Come out and welcome the new members.

GENERAL

The Branch delivers or mails a news bulletin to all members before the regular General Meeting. In this way, members, wherever they live, can get the latest news on the Branch activities and plans. Any one having a message of general interest or who knows of an activity, PLEASE jot it down and leave it at the bar before Aug. 15.

Okanagan Similkameen
This favourite vacation spot is only four hours by car from Vancouver using the new Coquihalla Highway connector. Here you can enjoy the area's lakes, fresh fruit ripe off the tree and wine sampling from the numerous award-winning local wineries.
Okanagan Lake has seven Provincial Parks. Just south of this very large lake is the smaller Skaha Lake, a great spot to catch kokanee salmon.
The waterpark concept has made a big splash in the Okanagan. There are slides at Kelowna, Osoyoos, Westbank and Penticton. The local theme parks, such as Flintstone's Bedrock City, Old MacDonald's Farm, and Okanagan Butterfly World are also a hit with families.
Twenty of British Columbia's twenty-two wineries are found in the Okanagan Valley and the wines produced here are gaining an international reputation. This region is one of the major fruit baskets in North America and juicy, fresh fruit is sold at roadside stands in places like Keremeos, Peachland and Summerland.
The Okanagan Wine Festival takes place in October. This international-calibre event culminates in a public wine-tasting on the last weekend of the festival, when over 1000 people turn up to sample dozens of wines.
If you are interested in wines, have a young family, or are just looking for the ideal place to relax in the sunshine, visit the Okanagan!
