An invitation to come "Into the Woods"

By Margie Giddings

Globe's presentation of "Into the Woods" is introducing eight new members to the group, though not necessarily new to the stage.

Among these are Lisa Horner as Cinderella. Lisa is a member of Actors' Equity and played Cinderella previously in a Ryerson Theatre Program. She also appeared in "The Dreamland" and "Singer" with Canadian Stage Company.

David Horner (Lisa's brother) plays Jack and has also had a fair amount of stage experience, particularly with the Meadowvale Theatre. His most recent appearance was in "The Wiz" with Theatre Unlimited.

The Baker is played by Scott Lale. Scott is the Technical Coordinator for the Brampton Theatre Department and studied drama at Brock University. His most recent stage appearance was with Brampton Music Society in "Damn Yankees" as Joe Hardy.

Sabrina Santelli makes a superb witch and has been studying opera with the Calbes Voice Studio, besides performing with the Mississauga City Centre Opera Co. in "Carmen" and "The Messiah". She also appeared in the Stage Kids Company "From Within". In Sabrina's spare time, she also does recordings.

Paula Gonsalves plays Florinda, one of the wicked step-sisters. Paula most recently appeared as Prissy in Orangeville's production of "Anne of Green Gables".

Mysterious Man is played by Anthony Leo who also appeared in "Anne" as Gilbert.

Sandy Dunlop makes her debut to the stage as well as Globe as The Giant.

The last of our newcomers, Katie Cochrane, also makes her debut with Globe as Snow White. Katie's main interest is competitive figure skating.

The remainder of the cast should be a little more familiar: from our most recent production of "The Mikado" we have Evan Robinson as the Narrator, Kirsten Johnston playing Cinderella's Stepmother and Sarah Mills as Lucinda, the other wicked stepsister. Brigida Callaghan plays Rapunzel and Rapunzel's Prince is played by David Brock.

From "Oliver" we have Pam Hewitt as Jack's Mother, who also portrayed Rachel in "Anne". Mark Llewellyn plays Cinderella's Prince. (The two princes, as well as being brothers, complement each other well and have a couple of hilarious scenes that will leave you rolling in the aisles). Also, we have Margie Giddings as Cinderella's Mother and Barry Pletch playing Cinderella's Father.

From "Grease" we have Sue Campbell as "Little Red Riding Hood". Sue also played in GLT's production of "Cinderella". Craig Marshall plays the Wolf, Paul D'Entremont the Steward and Allyson Tracey is Sleeping Beauty.

As Granny, we have Breffny Boyd and although this Breffny's first stage performance, she was the pianist for Globe's production of "Grease".

Last, but not lest, portraying the Baker's Wife we have Catherine Fettes, née Desormeaux. Catherine studied Dramatic Arts at the University of Windsor and appeared as Marty in "Grease". She also appeared as one of the dancers in South Pacific, which was her first show with Globe.

Please come out for a night of great entertainment to the John Elliott Theatre, Georgetown. Performances are July 27, 28, 29, 30 and 31, 8 p.m. and Aug. 1, 2 p.m. Tickets are available from Royal Lepage Real Estate, 170 Guelph St., Georgetown.
