Morris off to Canadian finals

By Mike Zrostek

Georgetown resident Shannon Morris will be heading to Winnipeg for the Canadian fastball finals Aug. 2 and 3, after being voted MVP at the Ontario girls' fastball championships in Belleville last weekend.

Morris, 16, who plays for the Burlington midget team, struck out 41 in 25 and 2/3 innings, started four of her team's five games and also held a hot bat, hitting .583; second-best in the tournament.

Oshawa (which won the tournament) was so impressed with the play of Morris they asked her to join the squad for the Canadian championships.

"I was very excited and bouncing off the walls when they called me and asked me to play for them," said a jubilant Morris. I was kind of surprised when they called because I didn't even know they could take other players."

Shannon Morris

In fact, each provincial champion is allowed to add two players from any team (provided they agree) for the Canadians, which makes the accomplishment even more remarkable.

Morris, who attends Georgetown District High School and pitches for the Rebels is excited about what has transpired this year for her.

"This is the best year I have had, we have a great team and went farther than ever before in the provincials. We are a young team (which also includes Sherri Peacock, another Rebel player) and I think we'll have some good years. I'm looking forward to the Canadians," she said.

Morris will be entering Grade 11 at GDHS this fall.

JV Jets soar to gridiron win

By Leanne Fournier

Another one bites the dust. In Georgetown Ladies' Flag Football action, Living Lighting folded as a result of lack of players three weeks in a row, causing three consecutive defaults. The team captain was unavailable for comment at game time.

On a more positive note, the teams that remain enjoyed another day of fantastic weather. JV Jets posted a win over QES by a score of 27-0 which gives them a 1-1 record against QES this season. In other action, CIBC managed a win over M & M Sports by a narrow margin of 9-6.

Rosemary Gale Wysocki appears to have wakened up the JV offense as she is a suitable replacement for ailing pivot, Lisa Allen. Rosemary started the scoring for JV on a QB run, Linda Ferguson chipped in the single. The rest of the game saw Lorraine Capreol run away with the show as she scored two majors and picked off two passes. Linda Ferguson snagged a two-point convert on a Capreol touchdown. QES pulled in an interception with the help of newcomer, Terry Lindsay, to halt a JV drive.

In the second contest of the day, M & M's mettle showed through as they held CIBC's potent offense to just nine points. CIBC got on the scoreboard first as they had to settle for a Monica Mastalerz field goal. In the first quarter, Sheri Nairn had a near pick-off that could have converted to six points. In the second quarter, Nairn would not squander her second chance for glory as she intercepted a pass and took it 70 yards for an M & M major.

CIBC came out charging in the third quarter and fancy footwork by Marg Walinga lead to a CIBC touchdown. The game seesawed back and forth with both defenses coming up big. With four plays left in the game, CIBC foolishly tried a play that resulted in a Brenda Hamilton interception. With three plays left, M & M could not go the distance.

Orioles on a GBA winning streak

TYKE LEAGUE

(July 13)

Country Style Orioles - 15
Ackland Automotive Pirates - 6

Leading the Pirates' effort, Jason Wyman belted a triple and counted for three RBI's while Andrew Wills launched a double and stole a base to add to it. Wyman added catching chores to his accomplishments, supported by Danny Collins on third who caught a base runner off the bag for a tag out.

Orioles' pitching staff of Kevin Binsell, Simon Deeley and Riley McAnamey held down Pirates' gunners and Chris Kirk was good for a fly ball catch. Bass running by Evan Golding and Richard Welsh added to Orioles 9-run margin.

(July 15)

Country Style Orioles - 17
Parker Cambria Press Blue Jays - 8

Orioles made it two for the week, downing blue Jays with a salvo of hits: Evan Golding, Kyle Storey and Richard Welsh got on the board; David Luck and Riley McAnamey counted for doubles; Chris Kirk hammered both a triple and a grand slam - both Kirk and McAnemy claimed four RBI's. Aggressive base running by Kevin Binsell and fielding by Adam Densmore rounded out the Oriole's effort.

Ackland Automotive Pirates - 15
Georgetown Firefighters Mets - 9

Pirates cam back from their Monday loss to Orioles, sparked by a double play by John David Albert, who snagged a fly ball for the first out and then caught a would-be base runner for the tag-out. Pirates' strategy of keeping pressure on the Mets paid off as Albert, Danny Collins, Jason St. Pierre, Graham Walker, Andrew Wills and Jason Wyman all stole home.

(July 16)

Georgetown Firefighters Mets - 25
Parker Cambria Press Blue Jays - 8

Mets were out for revenge on Friday and struck with a powerful combination of great offense and stellar defense.

Jason Mercer hit a double and teamed with Ryan LaRose on an inning-ending strike-'em-out-throw-'em-out double play.

Tim Mansfield also hit a double and teamed with Greg Reinelt to nab a Jay attempting to steal.

Cory Latimer made a sliding catch of a pop fly and dazzled the crowd with a sliding steal of home.

Country Style Orioles - 13
Halton Public Storage Cubs - 8

Friday night gave Orioles their third decisive win of the week. Cubs' running force was curbed by a fly ball catch by David Luck, and excellent Justin Hilts - Richard Welsh - David Luck relay, and Matthew Hess who posted two pickoffs at 2nd. Chris Kirk led the offense with a double and a triple.

Blueberries defuse Rockets

By Judy Latto

The Georgetown Lioness Blueberries scored a 2-1 win over the Young's Pharmacy Red Rockets July 14 at Cedarvale. Stephanie Palichuk and Leah each scored a goal for the Blueberries. Shelly Crane scored a single for the Rockets. Brianna Motluk and Heather MacArthur played very well for the Young's Pharmacy team.

In spite of the rain, the Ramrock Electric Fireballs won 1-0 over Leighton Image's Green Machine in a shortened game. Meagan Sproule scored the goal and Sarah Toole and Katelyn Gingras were also noteworthy players. Amanda Arnold, Jessica Garvey and Erica Wilson showed excellent effort for the Green Machine team.

Halton buries Streetsville

By Helen Bilik

Halton Under-19 girls team carried on strong as three goals were scored within the first eight minutes of the game against Streetsville. Beating Streetsville to the ball allowed Halton to score five more goals, winning the game 8-2.

Great teamwork by the whole squad. Consistent effort again by the whole team. Goal scorers were Taysha Brankiewicz - 4, Ruth Burrows - 2, Erica Booth - 1 and Darby Erler - 1.

Under-19 Girls

Noteworthy players were Tanya McMaster (goalie), Lori Allan and Tracy Metler. Great work, girls!

Next game 8:30 vs. Milton in Milton this Tuesday.
