Goalkeepers share in the limelight

By Ruth D. Taylor

When the going gets hot, the hot get going. Hot goalkeepers this week for the Under-11 Georgetown and Acton girls soccer teams were Sinead Irvine for the green side and Heather Inglis for the Poppacorns. The score was a 2-2 tie, since many scoring chances for the Poppacorns were blunted by the green side.

Helping out the goalies with good plays for the green side were Jessie Locke, Karen Zomer and Caitlin Lichty. Playing well for the Poppacorns were Becky Chapman with super defense kicks clearing the goal area and Heather Cunningham helping the forward line.

Under 11 Girls

Sinead Irvine also scored two goals for the greens while Kira Lawrence and Rhonda Myers scored one each for the Poppacorns.

Samantha Arnold was off the injury list and played well with a broken arm when the blue Optimists met the orange Linda Armstrong/Johnson & Associates team. Elizabeth DeJong and Jacqueline Mousseau courageously shared the goalies' duties as the blues played shorthanded.

Optimist Becky Culp prevented a shutout by scoring one on a rebound. Jacquie Mousseau courageously shared the goalies' duties as the Blues played shorthanded.

Optimist Becky Culp prevented a shutout by scoring one on a rebound. Jacquie Bajic was hustling with B.J. Fleet in midfield but the orange team squeezed the blues 6-1. Alanna Zelek maintained her game average with three orange goals and then a first goal of the season was scored by Jennifer Norman, while teammates Vanessa Taberer, and Ashleigh Dunlop each scored their second of the summer. Carolyn Seads played goal for the Linday Armstrong Oranges for the first time with Jodie Armstrong also between the posts for this game.

K. Kinnon from the Acton referee pool blew the whistle.
