B.C. Ferries

The B.C. Ferries system is one of the most extensive in the world, covering British Columbia's coastline for thousands of kilometres. They have 40 ships operating on 24 routes and their clean, very comfortable ferries make sea travel both easy and highly affordable. Once you are aboard you are on your way for a relaxing cruise through some of the most breath-taking scenery imaginable. There are numerous sailings daily up and down the coast, in many cases to places that can't be reached by any other means.

The most popular route is between Vancouver and Vancouver Island. The most majestic voyage is between Port Hardy (on the northern tip of Vancouver Island) along the Inside Passage to Prince Rupert. It is a spectacular trip at any time of year, but from June through September, it's a 15 hour (one way) voyage during daylight hours, the perfect time to see the exceptional scenery on this most scenic of routes. From Prince Rupert, you can also sail on to the unspoiled Queen Charlotte Islands.

For schedule details and general information on all routes, as well as reservations on the Inside and Mainland/Gulf Island routes, call (604) 669-1211 in Vancouver or (604) 386-3431 in Victoria.

Summer is a great time of year. Enjoy it in good health.

Summer is a great time for using a barbeque. Be fire safe! Burns received from operating barbeques improperly or not maintaining them regularly can put a damper on summer fun.

Be a fire safe camper.

Practice boating safety.
