Hornets 2nd in Grimsby tourney

By June Roy
 The Under-17 Halton Hornets select girls soccer team traveled to Grimsby last weekend for their first tournament of the season. In their first game on Saturday, the Hornets faced an aggressive Scarborough United team. Scarborough United scored first but the Hornets came back to tie it up prior to half time on a goal by Marci Roy. Scarborough's more aggressive play gave them the edge in the second half as they put two more goals in the net to win 3-1. An hour later, the Hornets met London for their second game. London players, playing their first game of the tournament, were caught off guard by the Hornets early in the game and quickly fell behind by two goals scored by Marci Roy and Jen Goy. However, London did manage to get one back by half time. Despite London's efforts in the second half to intimidate the Hornets with their very physical play, the Hornets managed to hang on for a well-deserved 2-1 win. The third game against Brams United resulted in a 2-2 tie. Scoring for the Hornets were Jen Goy and Jill McMenemy. This win propelled the Hornets on to the semi-finals on Sunday where they again had to face Brams United. This game was to determine which team would advance to the championship cup game later in the day. This was a well-played match with Brampton coming out and scoring early. The Hornets relied with a goal of their own scored by Danielle Cary and then went ahead with another goal by Marci Roy. Brampton managed to tie the game again but Hornets striker Marci Roy put an excellent run up the field and crossed the ball over to Jen

Jenny Goy

Goy who put the ball in the net and the game out of reach with a final win of 3-2.

The final game for the championship cup placed the Halton Hornets up against their first opponent of the tournament, Scarborough United. Scarborough came out and scored quickly. The Hornets fought off a very aggressive Scarborough team well into the second half of the game and despite creating numerous scoring opportunities of their own, the Hornets were unable to find the net. Scarborough scored another goal late in the second half to secure a 2-0 win.

The following players deserve recognition for their outstanding performances and well-earned second place finish: Kate Blyth, Danielle Castiglione, Joy Walraven, Angela Orticello, Cortney O'Brien, Tracey Andrews, Cheryl and Carla Jenkins, Danielle Cary, Marci Roy, Louise Hatton, Jen Goy, Jill McMenemy, Danay Guignard and Christine Hohendorf. Special mention to both Danay Guignard and Christine Hohendorf who provided solid netminding for Hornets on Saturday and Sunday.

Mike Campbell has stellar outing

Tyke League Halton Public Storage Cubs 13

Georgetown Firefighters Mets 8
 Danny Gilbert, Kyle Hotham and Tim McNicholl drove in runs to provide a solid base for Cubs' attack. Philip Stocks on defense was outstanding on both corners and behind the plate. Mike Campbell spearheaded the assault with 4 runs, 3 RBIs and 4 stolen bases.

Acklands Automotive Pirates 12
Barker Cambria Press Blue Jays 12

John Albert, Danny Colin, Colin Eves, Jason St. Pierre and Graham Walker all claimed RBIs in Tuesday night's barrage. St. Pierre claimed four; Walker had a three-hit game, including a double; Eves also hit a double; and Bill Campbell fairly danced around the sacks. As darkness fell, neither side could squeeze out the advantage and each had to head home tied at twelve.

Country Style Orioles 10

Terra Glen Animal Hospital Athletics 8

Alert base running by Adam Densmore, Evan Golding, Josh Martin and Richard Welsh eased Orioles past Athletics by two runs and extended the birds' winning streak. Pitching by Kevin Binsell, Simon Deeley, Chris Kirk and Riley McAneney held the aggressive Athletics to 8 runs. McAneney and Matthew Hess led the hit parade for Orioles.

Peewee League Halton Hills Trout Farm Athletics 6
Varian Tigers 5
 Tigers edged ahead 5-2

during a three-inning pitchers' duel, but Athletics began to even the count as the game opened up behind Lewis Lepard's rocker into deep center and an Eoin Smith double.

In the top of the 5th, Tigers threatened to increase their lead by stealing home but Joey Arseneault threw a strike from center field in time to nab the thief at the plate.

With two out in the bottom of the 6th, Matt Hotham's double delivered the tying run. Then, on the same hit, Jeff Russell stretched for the plate, dislodging the ball from the catcher: a steal for Russell, a second RBI for Hotham and the one-run margin for Athletics.

Halton Hills Trout Farm Athletics 9
Georgetown Lions Mariners 8

Athletics stole their second of the week, edging Mariners on the strength of three runs scored on passed balls to second. Chad Clarke played well at first and counted for 2 RBIs. Jeff Russell was also good for 2 RBIs. Simon Ford has lost none of his edge, despite a month's holiday in England.

In Thursday and Friday games, Varian Tigers applied the lessons taught by Athletics on Tuesday, winning the pair in the bottom of the final inning. Thursday saw Halton Rapid Print Yankees robbed of the win in the final frame. On Friday, Georgetown Toyota Expos were victims of Tigers' last minute rally.
