

Leathertown Festival set for Sunday

The Halton Hills Tourism Committee is promoting the second annual Leathertown Festival this Sunday from 11 to 5 p.m. The whole community is invited to participate!

Tour the town on the popular double decker bus and learn its history through the colorful commentary scripted by Hartley Coles.

Visit the craft sale (juried, to provide only quality hand-made crafts) where you'll discover beautiful leather boxes and belts, woven belts and ponchos, porcelain and leather jewelry, attractive decorative baskets and other crafts too numerous to mention! Organizers are still accepting applications for the craft sale. Interested craftspeople can pick up an application at Wetherby's in Acton or call 519-853-1633 (daytime); 519-853-0239 (evening).

Continuing performances by community groups can be viewed on the stage on Fellows St., with introductions provided by M.C., councillor Gerald Rennie. In between the jazz dancers', square dancers' and clog-gers' performances, you'll be entertained by Acton Citizen's Band. If your group is interested in performing, please register at Wetherby's.

And of course, when you think of a Festival, you think of food! Community groups are welcome to set up bake sales and food booths to help round out the menu of the Acton Rotary Club's corn and hot dog roast. Please register at Wetherby's.

The Festival will be held in the olde Hide House parking lot (Highway 7 and Eastern Avenue) and on Fellows St. which will be closed to traffic. Downtown merchants are encouraged to participate by staying open and staging sidewalk sales, promoting in-store specials, providing sidewalk lunch specials, contests, etc. The bus will bring patrons downtown. Come and support your community, it's still worth the drive to Acton!

Ballinafad News

Slo-pitch tournament this weekend

By Betty Sojka

The Recreation Committee is putting together the last minute things that need to be done for the 4th Annual Mixed 3-Pitch Tournament and for the Beach Party Dance. Around 8 a.m., this Saturday is when the first game of the tournament will be held. Come on out. The Hall Board will be there serving coffee and donuts, etc. Later, they will change to a lunch menu of hamburgers, hotdogs, pop, etc. It will be a great time to grab a bite and watch some of the games being played. Every year some really superb plays are made, making viewing that much more enjoyable.

The championship games will be played

Sunday. A cash bar will be open in the community centre from 12 noon on Saturday. Tickets for the dance are available at the Ballinafad General Store for a cost of $7.50 per person. A light buffet will be served. Door and spot prizes will be awarded. Come on out to the community centre in your zaniest beach wear and dance to the super dance tunes supplied by J.V. Sound.

As the news is rather slow over the summer, it has been decided to combine the July and August monthly newsletters into one. Watch for it to come out about the third week of August. If you have any interesting tid-bits to share, it would be really welcomed! Please call Betty Sojka at 853-3691.

Chatauqua... The best kept secret in New York State

Pathway Tours, a Canadian motorcoach operator, has once again organized this highly requested tour for August 26-28/93, which includes performances by Anne Murray and Peter, Paul and Mary.

The breathtaking lake and Victorian community is so well hidden and almost unknown, just a short distance southwest of Buffalo and is probably the biggest surprise to all who have discovered it. The Victorian architecture of the many summer homes is complemented by lovely gardens and a quaint village square with very unique shops, tea houses and cafes.

There are no cars on the narrow cobblestone streets and you can wander until your heart is content, gazing at the beautiful Victorian homes and cottages with wonderful displays of flowers on every verandah.

The beauty and tranquility of Chatauqua are indescribable - until you have visited this 832 acre community but, once you have, you will wish to return.

For more information on this popular motorcoach tour which departs from Georgetown, please call Beeline Travel.
