Indecent exposure incidents

A 15-year-old Acton girl was walking along Mill St. in Acton Wednesday night when a white male stepped out from behind a pick-up truck and began following her and masturbating. The girl called police from a neighboring house. The suspect is described as being in his late 20s, or early 30s, 173 cm., 77 kg., with light brown or blond hair. He was wearing black pants and a light-colored short-sleeved shirt.

Police report a "similar incident" took place a few hours earlier in Milton, but could not say whether these incidents are related to the July 27 event, which occurred in the Canadian Tire parking lot on Guelph St. in Georgetown.

Multiple break-ins

A Georgetown man exited his home Tuesday morning to discover his car had been broken into, the tool box in his car missing, credit cards and identification cards stolen, and the dash board torn apart. The value of the theft and damage to the vehicle was approximately $1,000. This was the second time the 1987 Honda Civic had been broke into. On June 25, at the same location, suspects smashed the driver's window, and took a number of CDs, a CD player and a pair of speakers, valued at $1,200. Police are looking for suspects and witnesses.

Car phone stolen

Police are looking for a suspect who stole a car phone and sunglasses, valued at approximately $1,000 from a car parked in the driveway of a Georgetown residence Wednesday night. The car had been unlocked at the time.

Assault

A 42-year-old Georgetown man turned himself in to police Tuesday evening, after throwing his wife on the bed and hitting her several times in the face during a domestic dispute earlier in the evening. He was charged with assault.

Additional charge

A 27-year-old Acton man, who had been charged with assault for a July 9 incident, has also been charged this week with choking. The man attacked his girlfriend when she asked him to remove his possessions from her Georgetown home. He punched her in the cheek and began choking her. When the 33-year-old woman blacked out, the suspect stuck his fingers in her mouth to pry it open. The victim suffered bruising, stiffness and gashes from scratches, but no medical attention was required.
