Acton Brewer's Retail break-in

The Brewer's Retail store on Queen St. in Acton was broken into sometime between Saturday night (July 31) and Tuesday morning, and suspects made off with over $2,500 worth of cash and clothing. The suspects entered through the rear door, near the loading docks. They dragged both safes from under the counter to the back room, prised them open and took approximately $1,500. They also took baseball shirts and jackets, valued at $1,220. Damage to the safe was estimated at $2,000 and a further $800 in damage to the rear door. Police are still investigating the incident.

Trial date for gunman

Murray Donald Scriver, arrested last Sunday at McDonald's Restaurant in Georgetown and charged with possession of a dangerous weapon, possession of a restricted weapon and possession of a firearm while prohibited, will appear Monday in Milton Provincial Court to set a date for his trial.

McElroy in court Monday

Kevin Patrick McElroy, who was arrested July 29 and charged with break and enter and sexual assault, will appear in Milton Provincial Court Monday to set a date for his trial. McElroy broke into a Georgetown home July 27 and sexually assaulted a female victim.
