

Longhorns alone at top of herd

By Colin Gibson

And then there was one. One atop the Georgetown Mens Flag Football League standings, that is, following last Sunday's games at GDHS field.

The premier match of the day featured co-league-leaders Dawgs and Longhorns in a battle for loop bragging rights.

In this one, 'Horns had the beef and topped the depleted Dawgs 22-21.

In other Sunday games, M&M Pro Sports posted a surprising 34-21 win over Meznic Electric, while Plus Welding rode the talents of Greg Lawr to an entertaining 36-26 triumph over the improving Muscle Pit squad.

Longhorns 22 Dawgs 21

This game might best be described a two-for-one bargain.

Dawgs won the first half, 21-12, then retired to the pound to let the 'Horns push across 10 unanswered second-half points to record the win.

In all fairness to the Barkers, however, four of their stalwarts, John Egan, Duane Wilson, Dave Clements and league scoring leader Al Pelland were absent with leave because of prior commitments to a provincial playdowns touch football match.

QB Pat McKinnon seemed to be on cruise control through the first half for the Dawgs, tossing scoring passes to Mike DelGuidice, Terry Enman and Wayne Stasiulis. Also in the first half, Linus Stasiulis snared a two-point convert pass and Frank Bruno kicked a convert.

Bruce Mitchell and Paul Allison scored first-half major for the 'Horns, who appeared to be grazing in the grass, waiting for a chance to stampede.

They did so, in a fashion, through the final 30 minutes, with Bob Davey scoring a touchdown and Dave Patterson kicking a convert then hoofing a field goal. Davey also contributed an interception to the winners' cause.

M&M 31 Meznic 24

This was another case where the first half leaders couldn't build on their success to push through for a complete-game win.

Stu Lunn and Herb Hulme scored first half majors for Meznic, with Dale Mieczanec converting both.

For M&M, once more QB'd by a solid Stacey Brown, Stu Hirst scored his first of two touchdowns in the first half, converted by Richard Garden, who added three more converts and a field goal in the second half.

M&M knotted the game early in the second half, then it was just a case of the winners piling up the needed points as the game wore on.

Randy Lunn had the other Meznic major with 'The Mez' himself, Dale, kicking a field goal and a second half convert.

Horace Thomas and Brian Boettger scored the other M&M majors.

Plus Welding 36 Muscle Pit 26

In one of the most happy-go-lucky, entertaining games of the season, the Welders larked their way a win, once again decided in the second half.

Plus Welding led 27-20 at the half, while Muscle Pit scored a late game touchdown to make the score appear closer than it actually was.

Greg Lawr had a superb game for the winners, scoring a touchdown and picking off two passes, one in which he lateralled to teammate Howie Jacobs who scored.

Brian Beaumont scored two Plus Welding touchdowns, Daryl Weir had a touchdown and a two-point convert catch and Dan MacIntosh kicked a field goal and added a convert.

For Muscle Pit, Rob Walker once again literally stood head and shoulders above the crowd, snaring two touchdown passes and a two-point convert toss.

James Breedon, who also had an interception, and Mark McIntyre also scored TD's for Muscle Pit.
