Mighty fine food

Daddy's recipes and service are unique

In 1992, Daddy's B.B.Q., with its unique recipe for chicken, was started in Georgetown, at 232 Guelph St. Unit #6 in Guelphview Square. The restaurant-take-out-and delivery outlet has developed a unique blend of spices for their chicken dishes.

All of the recipes are made from natural ingredients: fresh meats, chicken and hand-picked vegetables.

The eat-in-takeout menu consists of rotisserie B.B.Q. chicken, fresh salads, fresh-cut fries, pasta, wings, tender ribs and an array of mouth-watering desserts.

The name is as unique as the food and partners Ash

Patel and Frank Marchese give their children credit for the suggestion of the name, "Daddy's".

They look forward to serving you and welcome any comments you have about their food or service. To order for free home delivery or a delicious take-out meal, telephone 873-9656.

Linda Sieber (right) said a sad good-bye to Shirley Day last week, as Shirley starts her retirement after 35 years of service as desk clerk cashier at the Union Gas office on Main Street South in Georgetown. Linda will now be taking over Shirley's responsibilities.
