

Dave Kotsos eyes golf tour title

By Mike Zrostek

Four Halton Hills golfers placed in the top 10 in the Accuform Junior Tour held at North Halton Golf and Country Club Friday. This included a third place performance by Duane Erler.

Erler finished with a final round 76, six strokes behind winner Shawn Beatty of Burlington, who had a two-under-par 70 thanks to five birdies and three bogies.

Michael Evans and Darin Finlayson tied for fifth with scores of 78, but the big story is 16-year-old Dave Kotsos of Georgetown who also placed fifth and is now second in the overall standings going into the final stop on the Accuform Tour.

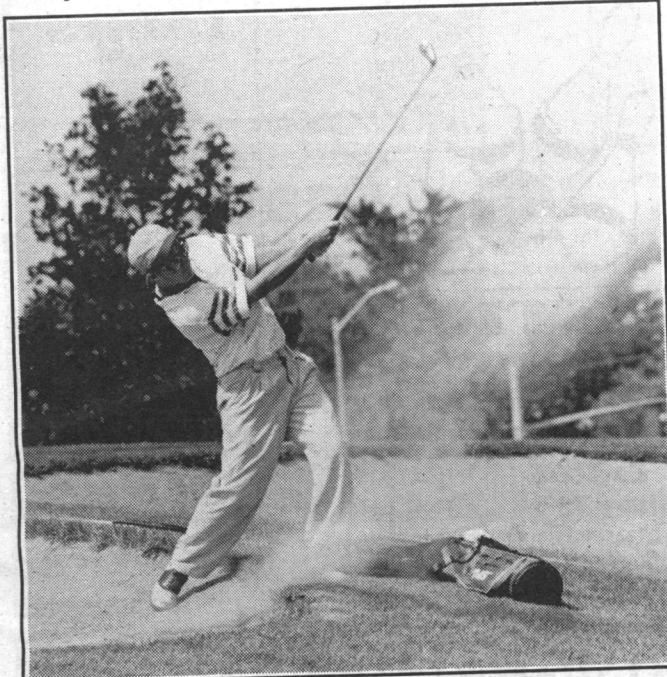

Kotsos, who is a rookie on the Tour will challenge last year's defending champ Mitch Mahoney from Hamilton for the championship.

"I feel like I can keep up with these guys and put in a good round every day. "It has turned out a little better than I expected," Kotsos was quoted as saying.

Many of the top junior golfers from the Halton and Hamilton-Wentworth regions play on the Accuform Tour because it helps them in their quest for scholarships in the U.S. and tour scores and placings help considerably.

Kotsos has 309.5 points, 18 back of Mahoney while his brother Mike is in third place with 299 points. Ian Windsor, who plays out of Georgetown Golf and Country Club, is sixth overall with 276.5 points and Erler is seventh with 268.5 points.

The final stop on the Accuform tour was Monday in Ancaster. Results were not available at press time.

Ryan Hay of North Halton Golf and Country Club found himself in a fairway bunker on the second hole on his home course last Friday during play of the Accuform Junior Tour golf tournament. Eighty junior golfers from Hamilton-Wentworth/Halton competed.

Mosquitoes sting Campbellville

By Ellen Piehl

The Acton Denny's Insurance Mosquito baseball team's bats were swinging big time last week as they defeated Campbellville 16-3 to take a one game lead in the championship series.

Acton took the lead early in the bottom half of the first inning when Joey McGrath brought Jeff Cole in from third base on a routine groundout.

Acton went up 2-0 later in the inning when Craig Lockwood singled into left field to bring in Wayne Hopkins from third.

Acton continued to score runs in the second.

Chris Gibson doubled into centre field and brought in Darren Selihar from third to take a three-run lead.

Acton then scored two more runs to take a five run lead at the end of the inning.

At the top of the third, Campbellville cut the lead to four runs, but that did not seem to intimidate Acton one bit.

Acton came up in the bottom of the inning and scored five more runs to take a 10-1 lead.

Acton reliever, Joey Thompson, however, stopped a Campbellville rally by striking out the final batter he faced.

Chris Near, Peter Topolay, Jason Wells, Thompson, Gibson, McGrath and Lockwood all contributed runs in Acton's victory.
