Red Championship
Barrie Communications
Pirates 25
Pizza Pizza Orioles 12
 Orioles managed three home runs, but then Pirates tied up Pizza Pizza offence and produced three shutout innings. Al Smits, Jeremy Jova, Michael Irvine, James Duff, Matthew Freelen, Steve Paulic all eliminated hapless Orioles. Jenny Allison and Charles Gerrity combined for a triple play, claiming the entire fourth inning.

Pirates also had some base running. Doubles went to Allison, Irvine, and Joel Shelton. Duff, Irvine, and Paulic rang up triples. Duff, Freelen, Shelton, and Gerrity each had to do a full lap.

Bronze Championship
Penrice Countrywide
Blue Jays 20

Cakes of Elegance Mets 16
 The bronze game was an even match between hard-working Mets and hard-slugging Blue Jays. Mets pulled together in both directions. Brian Agnew, Chris Smith, and Dustin Weger shone in infield play. Darren Hart, David Maiezza, Mark Pakkala, and Steven Zeni led the baseline waltz, and Brandon Arsenaault, Kevin Dubreuil, Thomas Elinsky, Michael Irwin, Rusty Parsons, and Chris Smith all dispatched hits - Irwin's went out of the park.

Jays held the line with fielding by Michaud Garneau, Nick Savage, and Craig Seitz, along with double plays initiated by Jordan Armstrong and Steven Kogon.

Armstrong, Dexter Directo, Michaud Garneau, Greg Gougeon, Sean Graham (HR), Jason Hiltz, Kevin Parker (HR), and Craig Seitz (HR) generated Blue Jays' flurry of hits. But it wasn't until the bottom of the final inning that Jays could cash enough runs for the win.

Silver Championship

Reds took blue championship honors; Mets went on to the Red final.

Red Championship
Georgetown Firefighters
Mets 10

Barker Cambria Press
Blue Jays 9
 The entire Jays team produced an excellent effort, pressing Firefighters all the way. Pitchers Roger Artinoff, Andrew Ford, David Gibbons, and Sean Walsh made Mets earn every run. Andre Corey, Graeme Leveratte, and Chris Ward prevented a few. Michael Cook, Ryan Cuthbert, Justin Smith, Cameron Sisnet, Michael Taylor, and Chris Ward added runs to Barker's total.

Brendan Coates was the man to watch as Mets moved to their second game of the day and eased past Barker Canbria Jays by a single run. Coates produced a triple and an RBI, stole home in a dusty head-first slide and made two excellent catches in the field. Jason Mercer helped with an RBI, and Cameron Davies proved to be another double threat late in the afternoon. Davies contributed a double from the plate, then struck out two in the final inning to prevent a Jays comeback.

Kyle Hotham pitched two strong innings for Cubs against Padres' squad of Scott Allison, Jamie Doole, Brendan Louth, and Matt Rodgers.

With pitching and batting evenly matched, it was fielding that decided the game. Mike Campbell, Chad Fleming, and Ryan Inglis played solidly for Cubs. Chris Hall of the Padres came up with a key catch in deep center. The turning point came in the bottom of the seventh with Padres up by two runs. With a Cub runner on first, Allison, Rodgers, and Doole teamed up for a smooth pitch-out which nabbed the steal at second and deflated the Cub comeback.

It was two Tigers out, bases loaded in the final inning when Meinen, now working from the mound, threw the full-count pitch to ease Mariners into the single-run win.

Gold Championship
Halton Rapid Print
Yankees 15
Halton Hills Trout Farm

Trout Farm gunners Ian Cunningham (2 RBIs) and Derek Mitchell (1 RBI) had three hits each, and Ford bagged a triple and an RBI in his turn at bat.

Cunningham and Lewis Leopard came through with catches at first for Athletics. Yankee Tremblett also contributed a key catch for the winning effort, though it was Kevin James who made the game-winning snare. Concentration and solid team work created a firm defence and earned Yankees the win.

In a two-out situation, catcher Chris Meyers fired one right on the button to second baseman Darren Mansfield, who tagged the runner to close the inning.

Kinsmen Expos 9
Shepherd TermOfForming
Blue Jays 7
