September 24th '93

Remember: The last Wednesday of every month is Seniors' Day!

Drawing Contest (7:30 to 9 pm). Open to children 12 years and under. To enter the contest, pick up your free chalk from Oxbow Books and draw a harvest picture on the pavement. Three prizes will be awarded (9:15 pm approx.). By the way, did you know that the book 'Chalk Around the Block' was written by local authors, Sharon McKay and David MacLeod? I've heard that one of them will be on hand to help with the judging.

At 8 pm the students from the Borland's Georgetown Karate Club will be demonstrating the fine art of Karate. Instructor Pam tells me they have been working very hard and are looking forward to performing for you. Community groups running fundraisers are - Love in Christ Food Bank's Weeny Roast, The Open Door's Corn Roast and the Kiwanis Club of Georgetown's Cup of Chili. Throughout the evening music will be provided by M.C./D.J. Dan Wagstaffe (Troopers). Also, we are hoping to have the pleasure of hearing some of the school choirs/bands.

No need to worry about traffic as you wander around to check out the many in-store specials. Main St. South will be closed from Church St. to James St. for this event.

Please join us for "Harvest Moon"-Light Madness. Make Friday September 24 a family night out in Downtown Georgetown.

Our thanks to co-sponsors Up Up & Away (face painting) and Oxbow Books (contest prizes). And to Shirley Day, wherever you are, Happy Retirement from all of us in Downtown Georgetown. Shirley retired from Union Gas after 35 years of service.
