Scoring title up for grabs

By Colin Gibson

Final regular season games in the Georgetown Mens Flag Football League go tomorrow (Sunday) at GDHS and the league standings could be altered somewhat at day's end.

If the Longhorns lose and the Dawgs win, Dawgs would take first because of their 2-1 record in head-to-head matches with the present league leaders.

Similarly, if Muscle Pit defaults again, third place (and the playoff picture) could be thrown totally out of whack.

Al Pelland has a lock on the league scoring title, but will be going after the league season scoring record of 112 points when the Dawgs meet Plus Welding in Sunday's first game.

Plus Welding defensive stalwart Greg Lawr, will be hoping to wrap up the regular season interception crown.
