Rebel gridders ready to 'rock and roll'

By Mike Zrostek
It's that time off the year where all the sports intertwine and included in the hectic schedule is junior and senior football at Georgetown District High School.

Both Rebel squads have started practices as the football season fast approaches with the senior opener on October 1st.

Under coaches Randy Marlinangeli, Chris Sargent, Terry Elik and former Hamilton Tiger-Cats star John Malinoski, the senior Rebels are hoping for a successful season.

The team will be led by a run and shoot offense featuring slotbacks Randy Bond and Ian Sinclair with quarterback Paul Ingram at the helm.

The junior squad, coached by Fred Kotani, Bob Kee, Rick Redshaw, Jack Brown and Jay Anderson are ready to improve on last year's .500 record.

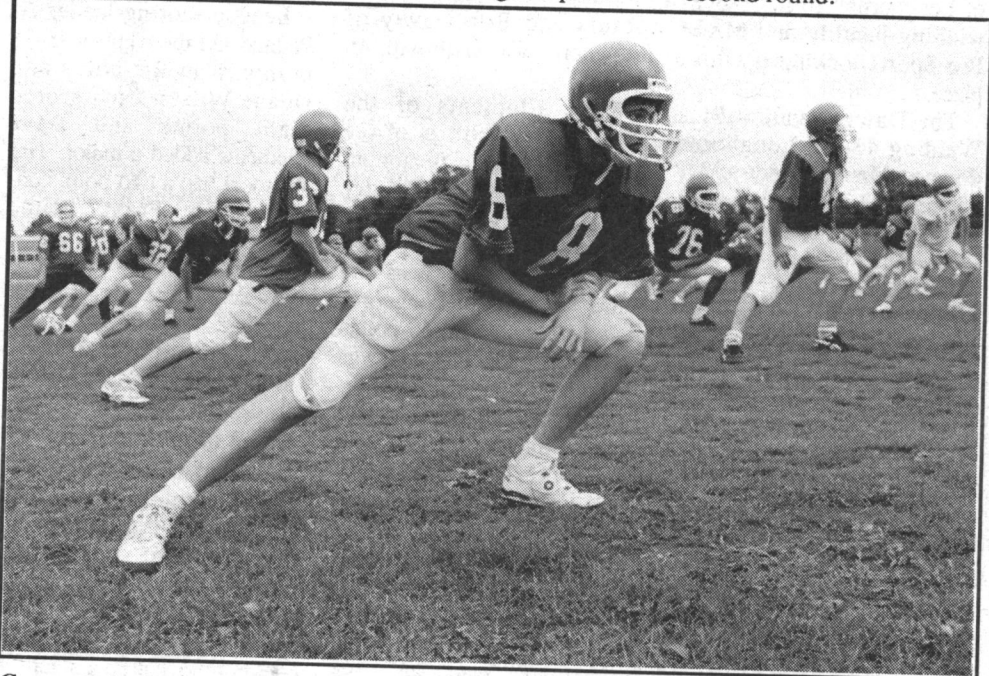

A strong offensive line should allow the junior Rebels to run around their opponents and give quarterback Jeff Wilson protection this upcoming year.

Paul Sanifer and Paul Ruttiman have good size and speed and should lead the way in the Rebels wish-bone offense.

Defensively, the junior Rebels are strong at defensive back with Tim Grant, Jamie Bottomly and Rick Vivian. The defensive line will be another strong point in the Rebels game plan.

Coach Redshaw says the goal of the junior squad is to win the Tier II division, improving on last year's playoff run where the Rebels went down in the second round.

JV Jets edge QES

By Leanne Fournier

There was only one game in ladies flag football action this past weekend to determine Arnies opponent in the semifinals.

This contest was played in the true spirit of playoffs as both QES and JV Jets fought till the final whistle.

QES was first out of the blocks with a pass and run play to Brenda Ryan who then raced 40 yards for the score. Tammy McLaughlin booted the single.

For JV Jets, Ineke booth grabbed a touchdown pass while Linda Ferguson converted. Rosemary Gale Wysocki would then take the destiny of her team into her hands as she scampered 60 yards for the second major. Ferguson chipped the single.

Brenda Ryan struck again for QES on a 30 yard run but QES had to gamble on a two-point convert as a result of an injury to Tammy McLaughlin. Lady luck would not shine on QES as the touchdown was not converted.

In the semifinals, M & M and CIBC go head-to-head at 8:45 a.m. while Arnies and JV will clash at 10 a.m. at GDHS.
