Fun Day in the Glen

By Wendi Goodhew
Sunday (tomorrow) is Fun Day in the Glen for all ball players and their families. Things get under way at high noon. Awards and team pictures will be given out at this time. Wayne Norton will be cooking corn again this year. Hot dogs and hamburgers and pop and, yes, ice cream cones will be ready and waiting. All this and more only at the Glen. You don't want to miss the action, so be there at high noon, remember, parents!!

On behalf of all the players in the Glen I would like to thank the Glen Minor Ball Executive for another great season.

The captain of the ship (Pres.) Shirley Inglis, kept her crew in top form this year. Vice-Pres. Wayne Norton did a fantastic job with supplying ump's for all the games plus many extra jobs throughout the season.

Linda Armstrong, Treasurer, did another fine job this year, keeping the funds straight and the booth supplied.

Carol Telford, Cindy Crawford, Cindy Bellinger, Jackie Inglis, Dave Ward and Lynn LaFleur all spent many hours on organizing and booth duty and many extras this year so that all the players could enjoy playing ball in the Glen.

It's people like these that make it all come together and worthwhile for the kids.

Thanks for a great job!!!

Glen Squirt boys team. Coaches Brian Lockrey and Mike Bellinger. Players include; Brandon Gabet, Josh Lockrey, Eric Axford, Derek Gastle, Richard Fendley, Danny Cookson, Marc LaFleur, Allen Humberstone, Alex Main and Josh Robbins.

Glen Squirt boys dazzle the fans

By Wendi Goodhew

Coming into the playoffs sitting in third place, the Glen Squirt boys proved they were ready to play ball when they beat Cheltenham and just missed beating the strong Hornby team.

In the first game, the Glen met Cheltenham and like Yogi Berra says, "It's not over till it's over" when at the top of the 7th inning, the Glen was down by 10 runs. With some great coaching, dedicated fans and a lot of hard work the Glen tied the game 20-20. It took the Glen one extra inning to win 21-20.

Saturday the Glen met the first place team, Hornby. The Glen took the lead 10-0 with a strong pitching performance by Brandon Gabet. Hornby came back to win the game 17-12.

The second game of the day saw the Glen matched up again with Cheltenham. With the desire to make the championship game in their minds, the boys played hard and once again beat Cheltenham 19-7.

Their final game, and their third game of the day, the Glen met Hornby for the championship. Brian Lockrey and Mike Bellinger had their 10 players in high gear on Gatorade and bubble gum. After seven long innings and lots of sweat and hard work, the boys found the excitement of three games in one day took its toll on them and they lost to Hornby.

If the Championship had been decided on effort and team spirit, the Glen would have reigned over everyone.

Coaches Lockrey and Bellinger were proud of each and every player on the team and in their books, the team song was "We are the Champions", if not by the score, but by the team spirit and in the hearts of every fan.

Team Members
Brandon Gabet: Known to everyone as "Booster" or the fastest arm in the Glen. Booster can really chuck the ball;

Josh Lockrey: Josh makes his home behind the batter, catching. He really keeps the team's spirits up.

Eric Axford: For a first year player, this boy has come a long way. We'll watch for him in the years to come;

Derek Gastle: Derek's never-give-up attitude helps him play a good game;

Richard Fendley: Richard plays shortstop and pitches.

When he's hot, he's hot;

Danny Cookson: Known as Earthworm 'cause the boy can dig deep and came up with the ball every time;

Marc LaFleur: Marc plays right field and always tries his best every game. He never quits;

Allen Humberstone: The

Glen's spitfire. The boy is full of energy and plays a great game;

Alex Main: Nothing gets by this boy. He stops everything the opposing team hits at him;

Josh Robbins: Slips into high gear and he's gone. This boy can run.

Glen Pee Wee girls finish season in first

By Wendi Goodhew

These girls had a great year. Coaches Diane Taylor and Chris Hooker are proud of all their players. Congratulations to the whole team.

Saturday (today) is the coaches appreciation dance at St. Alban's Hall in the Glen. Tickets are $5 per person, door opens at 8 p.m. Tickets are still available. So come on, guys, dig into your pockets and bring your wives, girlfriends or whomever out for a great time and show the coaches your appreciation. Where else can you get a cheap night that's guaranteed to be a blast? Tickets available from any executive member or call your coach.

CIBC and Arnies challenge for crown

By Leanne Fournier

Fans will see a rematch of last year's final in the Georgetown Ladies Flag Football League as CIBC and Arnies go head-to-head at 9:30 this Sunday. In regular season play, Arnies won two of the three contests against CIBC and in all three contests, the game was decided by four points or less. This should prove to be an interesting matchup.

Arnies had little difficulty gaining their championship berth as they defeated JV 24-0. JV was never in this game as Caroline McMillan seemed to score at will. JV's defense was suspect as they played man-to-man the entire game. Carol Kovacevic, Jodi Jacobs, and Michelle McMillan all had majors while Judy Grinberg picked up a two-point convert. Caroline chipped in a field goal and a single to aid the cause. JV got on the score sheet with a lone interception by Lynn McKenzie. JV's prospects for next year look promising if they can keep the same players and their coach.

In the first battle of the morning, the spark of playoffs could be seen in each M & M's players' eyes. In spite of the lack of two key players, Sheri Nairn and Sandra Cousens, M & M rose to the cause. CIBC looked sharp early with a major by Colleen Price and a Monica Mastalerz single. Midway through the second quarter, M & M punted and rookie sensation Tara Burroughs returned it 50 yards for a touchdown. M & M then marched the distance and gave one of their patent hand-offs to speedster Donna Davey for six. Without their regular kicker, they went for two points but the pass was batted away.

Monica Mastalerz tonned a punt to give CIBC a single which gave them a 14-6 lead. But then the unthinkable happened. It was surely a page out of the first year GLFFL history books. Dianne Tooze snagged an interception for CIBC and ran 50 yards to the two yard line of M & M before her teammates were able to alert her that she had run in the wrong direction. CIBC's offense then faltered and M & M moved the ball with the precision of their team of old. Denny Ursel ran 10 yards for a touchdown but again, their tow-point convert failed. With time winding down, M & M marched the ball but could not get close enough to get the go ahead score.

Note: The GLFFL windup is on Friday, Oct. 1 at Timeout Roadhouse, 7:30.
