

Junior lady Rebels fall short

By Mike Zrostek

The Georgetown District High School Rebels junior girls basketball team had a strong showing in their first tournament play of the year, losing a close 38-30 game to Barrie in the finals of a tournament at White Oaks in Oakville last Saturday.

Kate Plotsky led the Rebels in the first game with 13 points while Shannon Nolan had 11 in the 39-27 win over host White Oaks.

Game two saw the Rebels defeat Q.E. Park 28-20 with Plotsky leading the way again tossing in 13 points. Nicola Daykin was right behind adding 12 in the win.

Coach Jim Broughton was very pleased with the girls play in the first two games crediting strong play by the whole team and a particularly great defensive game by the girls.

In the final, the Rebels offense got off to a slow start before coming on in the second half but came up just short to Barrie.

"We had a slow first half, came on in the second but the offense was cold. It was a great defensive tourney for the girls and a good warm-up for the regular season," said Broughton.

The Rebels junior and senior girls first league games are Oct. 7 in Milton.

Rebel seniors fall short in opener

By Mike Zrostek

Opening day in any sport is always a nervous time for players. They want to execute what they have practiced with the same smooth results that are displayed during the week-long preparations.

Many times teams are a little tight and mistakes happen, and this is what occurred in the senior football Rebels season opening 11-10 loss at Loyola.

"I think it was opening day jitters," said coach Gary Sargent. "We played well but we just had a few mental breakdowns. The effort was there but we have a lot of players playing both ways and fatigue may have set in during the game."

Quarterback Steve Ingram scored the Rebels lone touchdown while Randy Bond and Jason Walker caught a couple nice passes for the offense.

"The defense played well, their was a mix up on coverage that cost us. We missed a field goal and extra point but I think it was just the players being nervous. Overall we played well," said Sargent.

This year the Rebels had only two weeks to prepare compared to three the previous year and playing in a tough division will show what the Rebels are made of.

Sargent says most of the previous GDHS football teams have had trouble opening day and that it's nothing to worry about.

Oakville-Trafalgar will be the opponents for the senior Rebels home opener this Friday, with the kickoff at 3:30 p.m.

Cindy Clarke just rolling along

The senior Y.B.C. division at Georgetown Bowl is still setting the standard for all the youngsters. The boys and girls continue to "Bowl the Championship Way". Cindy Clarke, with her 699 triple, finally pulled ahead of Sharon Shapcott. She now has a 221 season average and is starting to tease the male section especially Ryan Martin who had a little slump this week.

The junior boys division is in the hottest competition between three bowlers, Paul Larocque, Matthew Walker and Adam Scuralli. Matthew Walker rolled a 678 (251) triple, Paul Larocque 663 (248) and Adam Scuralli 621 (252). Thus Walker displaces Larocque in first place with a 201 season average. Janice Somers had the girls' highest triple but Lynn Moreland still retains first place in average.

This is the first week of the qualifying round for the Master-Junior Tournament. The standings in the girls section are as follows: Janice Somers, Leanne Neil, Heather Pollock, Sara Pegg, Andrea Pollock, Lynn Moreland, Suzanne Larocque and Elizabeth Shaw. The boys section standing, in order, are Matthew Walker, Paul Larocque, Ryan Boyer, Adam Scuralli, Chad Conrad, Shane Mandarino, Scott Graham and David King.

In the bantam division, Brendan Lough, always second to Richard Gostlin in past years, has finally pulled into first place with a 151 average. However, Gordon Everett's triple of 492 places him third, just one pin behind Gostlin. Kelly Klimsiak pulled ahead of Sonia Moreland by rolling her first 205 game for this season.

New bowlers are welcome to join and learn to "Bowl the Championship Way" at Georgetown Bowl.
