

Great Pumpkin Challenge a sign of the season

By Eileen Ross

Well, it's that time of year again. Roast turkey, pumpkin pie, and the annual Great Pumpkin Challenge Weigh-off. Hosted by Bert and Laurie Andrews of Andrews Scenic Acres in Milton, it's the fourth consecutive year of Thanksgiving fun for the family.

The festivities will be held Thanksgiving Monday, Oct. 11 with the great pumpkin challenge beginning at 2:30 p.m. Students may enter two categories with entries grown over this past summer.

The two classes are the Atlantic Giant Pumpkin and the best Jack O' Lantern contest. The winner of each will receive a $200 cash prize, and a $200 donation in their name to the charity of their choice.

Other activities to enjoy on the special day include a haunted forest, Wicked Wendy's Wigwam, pony and hay rides, and a playground, giant sandbox and animal coral for the kids. There will also be an opportunity to pick out your own pumpkin for Hallowe'en.

In addition to the annual Great Pumpkin Challenge Weigh-off, Andrews Scenic Acres hosts hundreds of school students in the fall who are treated to activities involving Thanksgiving and Hallowe'en themes.

Andrews Scenic Acres is open from May until Oct.31 year-round.

To get to Andrew's Scenic Acres, take Hwy. 401 to Hwy. 25 at Milton, drive five km north on Hwy 25. Drive east on 10 Side Road for three km. The property can be found between 3rd and 4th line.
