This show will really make you 'Smile'

You don't have to travel to Toronto to see a professional theatre production - Toronto is coming to Acton!

Smile Theater Productions is a non-profit, charitable organization that has been presenting fine plays for the past 21 years. Their colorful characters and entertaining musicals have dazzled audiences of all ages as productions are based on historical events and real historical people.

Join them in Acton on Oct. 21 for Bea, Moo and Mumsie, a musical play about Beatrice Lillie, her sister Muriel and mother - known as the Lillie Trio during the Vaudeville era.

Why not brush up on some more history by seeing Doc Ruffin. This musical is about Anderson Ruffin Abbott, the first Canadian black doctor and civil war hero. This play will be held on Feb. 2nd and is not to be missed!

Hey Ruby comes to Acton on March 24. This dance musical is about Halifax's Ruby Keeler who tapped her way into the hearts of many.

All plays are presented at Acton District High School and start at 7:30 p.m.

Come alone, bring a friend or the family. Enjoy any play for the low price of $6 per ticket or a set for three plays for $15. Tickets for all shows are on sale now. Transportation may also be arranged.

For tickets, transportation or information, call ASSIC at 853-3310, or drop by our office at 19 Willow St. North, Acton. These events are sponsored by Acton Social Services and Information Centre, an agency that believes in helping others to help themselves.
