Raiders have rough weekend

By Mike Zrostek

Georgetown Chrysler Raiders picked a bad time not to show up for their games this past weekend as they were throttled Friday in Milton 7-2 and Saturday at home against Hamilton 5-1.

Against the Merchants Friday, the Raiders came out on all cylinders for about the first 10 minutes. From there on they resembled a machine needing an overhaul.

It started off well for the Raiders as Randy Bond's long snap shot from the point found it's way through heavy traffic giving the Raiders their only lead of the night.

Milton tied it later in the first and added to the lead in the second scoring two in the first seven minutes making it 3-1.

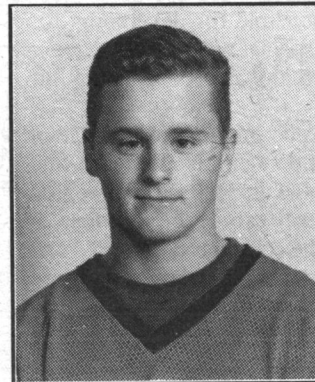

The Raider defense took most of the night off continually leaving men open in front of Paul Stinett with little backchecking by the forwards.

Newest Raider Chris Logue scored his first goal after Milton gave the puck up in it's own end and Logue beat Merchant goalie Carmelo Gurello just under his glove arm, making it 3-2.

Milton added one late in the second as the Raiders failed to clear the puck in their own end and paid for it as Merchants Chad Turner knocked in a rebound for a Merchant 4-2 lead after two.

In the third, the Raiders just didn't come out to play as the Merchants totally controlled the puck and the play, scoring three more for the win.

The Merchants simply did anything they wanted, whether it was taking runs at Stinnett or anybody else with a Raiders uniform without any reaction by Georgetown.

Head coach Garry Ford was obviously not pleased with the effort on this night.

"Guys were looking over their shoulders to see who was going to hit them. They want the puck but want other guys to get it for them. Some guys need to bring more than their equipment!", exclaimed Ford.

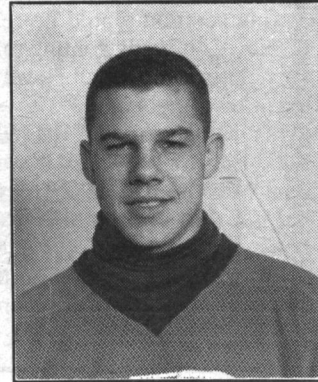

Saturday it was Nick Montessano's turn to be left alone stopping 46 of 51 shots in a rough affair at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena.

Both the Hamilton Kilty B's and Raiders combined for 106 penalty minutes as the Kilty's beat the Raiders for the second time in a week.

Again the Raiders got off to a fast start as Mike Bajurny scored his first goal of the year at 11:46 from Randy Bond and Chris Logue.

Hamilton added two late in the first including the first of Jason Johnny's two goals on the night to make it 2-1 Hamilton after one.

The Raiders power-play has been a sore spot of late on both Friday and Saturday failing to get any kind of pressure on the opposition and Ford doesn't like what he is seeing.

"Guys are just feathering passes, dumping it in and not getting the puck. If they are going to dump it in they have to hustle and they aren't."

Hamilton made it 4-1 in the second as they outshot the Raiders 16-9 and it could have been down by more if not for Montessano.

The third period was a rough one that included a spectacular fight between Georgetown's Andy Pavazer and Kilty's resident tough guy Dennis Cybalski.

Hamilton added another in the penalty filled third for the win, running their record to a perfect 6-0.

With the loss the Raiders drop to 2-4 on the season and it doesn't let up as they play three times in five nights.

Watch for Gary Ford to have the Raiders ready this week to turn it around and get rid of the three game losing streak.

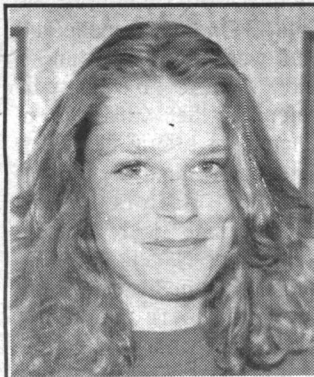

Friday the Raiders are in Burlington to take on the Cougars at 7:30 p.m.. Saturday they take on Oakville at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena, game time 8 p.m. The Raiders then travel to Streetsville for their first game against the Derbys on Tuesday.

Lady Redmen bow to Lord Elgin

By Mike Zrostek

Acton Redmen's girls basketball teams are going to give it everything they have this year in practice and games to ensure everybody plays and does their best.

The girls had a tough time of it in their opening games of the season against a powerful Lord Elgin squad from Burlington. Both the seniors and juniors lost by scores of 42-17 and 35-15 respectively.

court because it's a young team," said Andrews.

Unfortunately Robyn Kroft fractured her wrist during the game when she attempted to brace herself against a wall.

Jenny Goy, who is 15, played this game for the juniors to help them with their confidence says Andrews. Goy, who is an exceptional athlete, also plays for the senior team.

The Redmen girls take on Milton on Thursday (tomorrow) at Acton High School, game time 3:45 p.m.

Jenny Goy was the big scorer for the seniors collecting 11 points, all in the second half as the Redmen struggled in the first half finding themselves down 25-4 after the first half.

"We didn't play well at all in the first half," said coach Anne Andrews. "The second half we played more aggressively I think we may have been nervous."

"There is potential on the senior team. We have speed, we just need to improve our shooting."

Andrews credited Amanda Garwood and Shari Patenaude for their defensive play and Goy for her excellent rebounding.

The juniors, who have a few players hurt, also had difficulty against Lord Elgin but kept it close for awhile. They were down 6-5 after one and then got jittery in the second as they were outscored 11-0.

"Everybody got on the floor. That's important. To get all 13 of them out on the

Redmen runners shine

By Mike Zrostek

Five runners from Acton High School ran against some tough competition at the Oktoberfest Cross Country Meet at Chickapee Ski Hills in Kitchener last Thursday and held their own.

The meet, which attracted 1700 athletes from all over Ontario, is considered the largest cross country meet in North America.

Amanda Bonnell finished 50th out of 254 in the midget girls 2700-metres.

Acton High School coach Bruce Andrews credited

Bonnell with a well run race.

"Amanda ran well, she's the type of runner who has to get in front in that type of race because with so many runners you won't be able to catch up. She did that but got tired near the end."

In the same race, Jennifer Rigney came in 213th while Lauren Furness was 232nd.

Chris Wallis finished 313th out of 392 runners in the junior boys 6000-metres.

The next race for Acton High School will be Friday at Heart Lake in Brampton.

Rebel seniors romp - juniors struggle

By Mike Zrostek

Led by superior play at the net, the Georgetown District High School Rebels were in total control of their opponents from Milton last Thursday winning three straight, while the juniors had a tougher time in their match.

The seniors steamrolled Milton by scores of 15-9, 15-6 and 15-8 as they were in control from the get go.

After struggling to win in their last outing against Burlington Assumption, the senior Rebels did everything right and looked very sharp executing sets and volleys.

A beaming Bob McKay, coach of the seniors, was very pleased with the effort.

"This is the way we can play," he said. "We executed everything perfectly. It was a total team effort from the serving to getting the ball in the opposition's end."

Matt Deruchie, Matt Brain and Andy Elliot were just a couple of the players who dominated the net for the Rebels, as the entire squad played strong.

With the win over Milton, the seniors ran their regular season record to 2-0.

It wasn't as smooth for the juniors however as they dropped two out of three to Milton by scores of 9-15, 15-8 and 2-15.

With the loss, the juniors are now 1-2 in regular season play.

Next action for both the juniors and seniors is Thursday at Lord Elgin in Burlington.
