

Acton Citizens' Band holds Spring Concert, plays a wide musical arrangement

The Acton Citizens' Band entertained an audience at their Spring Concert, on the evening of June 2nd at the Acton Town Hall Centre, featuring a wide range of tunes and classic hits.

The evening was MC'd by Keith Black, who provided background information and commentary on each song played, while Conductor Carin Pelka put the band through its paces performing tunes, featuring selections from The Music Man and even instrumental renditions of some The Rolling Stones' greatest hits.

Funds raised from this concert were donated to the Acton Food Share.

It was also noted that the Citizens' Band is always looking for new members, and anyone who has an interest in playing an instrument is welcome to join. Practices are held each Wednesday from 7:30 P.M. to 9:30 P.M. at the Ted Tyler Music Centre on Wallace Street.

For more information on joining the Acton Citizens' Band, and for upcoming performances, you can visit their Facebook page, their newly-revamped website, actoncitizensband.ca, or you can send an email to actonband@gmail.com.
