

Dear Friends,

It was fifteen years ago when I started speaking out about the federal deficit and taxation. Back then they called me "Dr. Doom" because of my dire predictions.

Five years ago I decided to work for positive change within a political system that didn't listen and wasn't accountable; while taxes and the public debt kept climbing.

Through Townhall Meetings, newsletters, seminars, cable TV phone-in programs, weekly newspaper columns, and a 1-800 line into my home, I have done my best to inform, listen, take action and always be accountable to you.

As your MP, I have tried to provide the opportunity for anyone to become involved in a community process where together we take our anger and turn it into positive action.

With your support, I have gone from journalist, to Member of Parliament, the O'Canada project, Leadership Candidate, and now Minister of National Revenue.

And through it all, I have done my best to work for middle-class values and a country we can be proud of.

In a few days you will elect an MP to represent you in a very uncertain Parliament.

I want to continue to work for those principles and beliefs that brought me into politics.

It is for these reasons that I respectfully ask for your support on election day.

I will work for you full-time, non stop - Committed.

Garth.

Local newspapers endorse Garth Turner

"As for Garth Turner, our MP of the last five years, we can only say that Mr. Turner has served the people in this riding well. He has worked extremely hard to deliver his message to his constituents as well as to take their views to Ottawa. His stance has been consistent throughout his term in office.

And we have no doubt that were the rest of his party as intelligent, articulate, hard working, honest and accessible as Mr. Turner, not only would the Tories be heading toward a majority, but the deficit would, in fact, be going down.

As a member of the opposition, there is no doubt he would be an astute and effective critic and spokesperson for the voters of Halton-Peel."

The Bolton Enterprise, October 18, 1993

"Like many Progressive Conservative members Turner is being hung out to dry for some bad decisions made by his government, even though he has stood up and disagreed with some of their policies and practices. He has worked hard for the community, taken our views to Ottawa, and been accessible to local constituents. We aren't sure how much more can be asked of our representative.

We feel that Garth Turner deserves our newspaper's vote."

The Georgetown Independent, October 20, 1993

The Acton Free Press, October 20, 1993

"That leaves us with MP Garth Turner for Halton-Peel. Turner, regardless of where you stand politically, has responded to his constituents. His town hall meetings and a desire to listen to the little guy serves the community well. He says focusing on the deficit is also focusing on jobs. He's right."
