

Major Hurricanes churn up the ice

Halton Hurricanes Major Novices have improved their record to 6-0-0, beating Niagara Falls and St. Catharine's in their home rinks this past week.

The Oct. 14 Niagara game was never in doubt as the Hurricanes dominated most of the game enroute to a 10-1 victory. Individual effort gave way to a solid passing game in the third period, which paid off as the last five goals came in the final frame. A solid game was put in by goalie Matt Fielding, with the lone opposition marker coming after a scramble for the rebound in front of the Halton goal.

Ryan Ellis and Lucas Schott continued on their torrid scoring pace with a pair each. Matt Clark turned the hat trick for his second consecutive game (plus two assists). Singles were scored by Chase Trull, Aaron Cowey and Clem D'Orazio. Defenseman Johnny Gleed played a great game stripping the puck off the opposition and gaining three assists.

On Oct. 16 the team visited St. Catharine's for what proved to be a scrappy, close-fought game decided in the last few minutes, when Ryan Ellis pumped in two to allow a 2-1 victory. Numerous penalties were handed out with repeated skirmishes in both creases.

John Gleen again played another good game, stopping the opposition before they could mount an attack.
