Annual United church supper a special event

By Betty Sojka

Here is the scoop on the Annual United Church Supper. There are three sittings with times of 5 p.m., 6:15 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. on the Saturday, Nov. 6 date. The cost is $8 for adults and $3.50 for children. Take-out is available again this year with these same prizes. Just go to the church at the specified serving times and you will be looked after. Take-out does not require advance tickets. Please call Eileen McEnery at 877-3721 and Alma Sinclair at 877-6050 for tickets. You don't want to miss this tantalizing meal, served in a warm community atmosphere.

Helen Humphreys was the kind lady who provided the delicious dessert tray for the Oct. 14 euchre. There was an error in last week's reporting of this. Don't forget, we have another euchre happening this Thursday (tomorrow), starting 7:30 p.m. at the community centre. Cost is $3 per person, which includes a snack of sandwiches, goodies, tea and coffee. Let's see you there!

The Oct. 19 United Church Women's meeting had the ladies traveling to Fergus. There, at the home of former member Isabel Weaver, they were joined by guest Viola Shortill. Alma Sinclair and Eileen

Ballinafad News

McEnery were in charge of the Devotion and program for the meeting. Isabel Weaver conducted a trivia contest, which members found interesting. Along with regular business, the ladies discussed their upcoming catering jobs. This meeting was rather nice for members as they were also able to visit with Isabel and Viola.

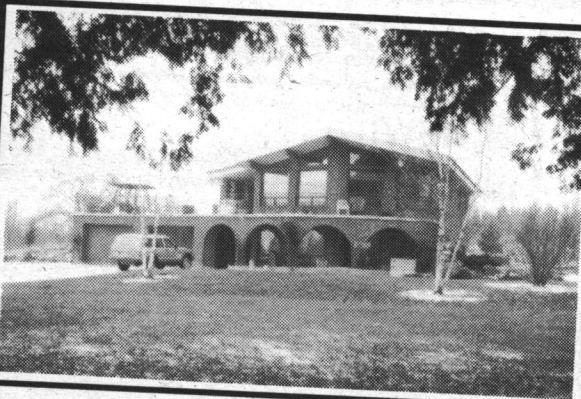

Tickets for this Saturday's Halloween Dance are getting fewer all the time. Drop into the Ballinafad General Store to get yours for $7.50 per person. This admission cost will get you a cold buffet plus the chance to win costume, door and spot prizes. J.V. is the D.J. providing the music. The fun starts at 9 p.m. at the community centre.

Okay, folks, you are being given fair warning! The New Year's Eve Dance tickets are now on sale at the Ballinafad General Store for $20 per person. A number of people have been asking for the tickets before they were even printed up, so they are expected to go fast. The menu is hot roast beef with a cold buffet. There will be a $100 cash door prize, as well as spot prizes. It will be a cash bar. Get your tickets early!

THE SPORT

'Tis the season to be a sports fan! You cannot escape sports between September and January. Even people who normally wouldn't know the difference between a hockey puck and a two point convert, become expert at some sport. Most likely they do so in self defence. Like most wives. Those poor, long suffering people who must force themselves to become somewhat of a sports buff in the fall, or give up on the marriage!

You just must be a sports fan at this time of the year. I guess you could go into hibernation, like a bear, but that is the only way you could miss the veritable plethora of fall sports events, as the venerable Howard Cosell was prone to say.

If you talk to anyone, anyone at all, you are going to be drawn into a sport conversation. You could stay locked up in a closet, to avoid fall sports, but someone bringing you your daily crumpet would be bound to say - "How about those Jays - Eh!" You can't escape!

You could limit yourself to watching and listening only to words and pictures about the Federal election race. Surely, you could not hate sports that much! But even if your constitution was strong enough to watch election items only, you just know that some aspiring politician will have said "How about those Leafs - Eh!" when trying to swing the Toronto vote.

You could shipwreck yourself on a deserted island to escape the steady flow of fall sports. You could just sit quietly and enjoy the silence. But don't pick up that bottle that washes up on shore, because the message in the bottle is bound to say "How about those Cowboys - Eh!"

You could drop by parachute into the interior of Antarctica to escape the volume of fall sports activity. But you know they would insist on rescuing you. And you know that the rescue party leader would greet you by saying, "Relax friend, the Jays won the World Series."

You could take refuge in the deepest, darkest reaches of Siberia, to escape the incessant games of fall. But your evening bowl of Borscht would be interrupted by a waitress saying "Notre Dame - Yo! Michigan - Nyet!" Escape is impossible!

So, give in to the inevitable. You might as well join in. Learn to enjoy those husky young guys from Western and Laurier, chasing the pig skin through the mud!

You know that you take a certain pride in watching the Leafs get off to such a good season start! Of course, you do!

And you wouldn't miss a T.V. football game featuring two football machines like the Dallas Cowboys and the San Francisco 49ers. Now, would you?

And, you must admit that you are looking forward to all the parades and "Gung Ho" college football in all those Bowl games.

Would it really knock you out if I told you that I had two tickets for the Detroit Lions and Chicago Bears game in Pontiac, Michigan, on American Thanksgiving Day? I didn't think it would!
