

Sewers' Trunk Show

So...what is a Trunk Show? Well, it's like a fashion show without the models.

Linda MacPhee, that whirlwind who blew in from Alberta last November, is joining us again Nov. 9, 8 p.m. at Georgetown District High School Cafeteria. We will have her all to ourselves for that Tuesday evening following the Creative Sewing and Needlework Show in Toronto.

Linda will be bringing her "trunks" full of gorgeous clothes for our Canadian climate.

If you joined us last year you will remember her wonderful fleeces, leathers, (anoraks), mukluks and accessories. These materials and patterns can all be ordered and some will be available that night.

Come out, bring a friend, and see what lessons are available as well. We will be charging $5 admission that evening. We regret the price hike, but we feel she's worth it and think you will agree! Linda is so inspiring and full of ideas.

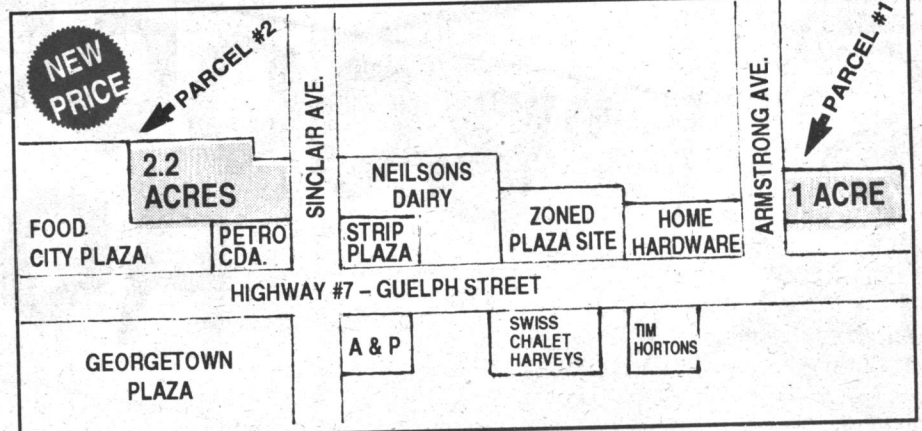

This is also an all-Canadian company with shops in Edmonton, Calgary, Winnipeg, Ottawa and Frankford, Ontario. Shirley Lyons is her contact in Georgetown. For further information, please call her at 877-5485.

GDHS is located at 70 Guelph St. in Georgetown.

Amateur photographer Lorne Hunter received the Mayor's Choice award for the photographs he submitted in the "Capture the Hills '93" contest, organized by the Halton Hills Camera Club. Town of Halton Hills Councillor Gail Rutherford presented the award Monday evening at the Civic Centre on behalf of mayor Russ Miller. Contest organizers Sandra Timleck and Jim Warrington, praised the work of all 25 applicants.
