GDHS mat-men have high hopes

By Mike Zrostek

Georgetown District High School 'Rebels' are preparing for what they're hoping is going to be one of their biggest wrestling seasons ever.

Coached by Jim Hall, former OFSAA (Ontario Federation of Secondary Athletic Association) wrestling champions Bill Davis and Geoff Moon along with Nick Daniels who is new to GDHS, provide the corner stone for a strong coaching staff.

With practices underway, Hall is hoping to attract a number of newcomers, stressing that anybody who attends practices will stay on the team.

Last year's had 30 team members and Hall hopes to have more grapplers this year to fill all the weight classes ranging from 83 pounds to the heavy weight division.

GDHS ran camps for grade eight students at Stewarttown and Centennial in hopes of getting more students interested in wrestling, a sport that's popularity is once again rising.

"It's a popular sport traditionally," says Hall. "There has been a lapse for a couple of years, but it's a good sport for kids because of all the ages and the different weight divisions."

The Rebels, who had a number of junior and senior Halton champs as well as competitors at GHAC and OFSAA and GHAC last year have many veterans returning to the team.

The goal of the wrestling team, says Hall, is to finish first or second in Halton and the Rebel coach thinks this will be the team's best year to date.

Veterans returning to the squad include team captains Colin Kay and Mike Large, who both wrestled at OFSAA last year.

Other vets returning are Ian Cox, Kevin Whithers, Mike Deryck, Jason Myers and Jason Titus.

Both Kay and Cox spent one week this past summer at a wrestling camp in Pennsylvania.

The first meet for the Rebels will be Nov. 19 in Mississauga. The one Hall is looking forward to the tournament GDHS will be hosting Dec. 4th.

Athletes will compete in the rookie tournament from all over the area, with Hall expecting over 300 students who have never wrestled before, participating.

It will be a busy year for the Rebel wrestling team involving tournaments in Guelph, Burlington, St. Catharines, Brampton, Hamilton, Toronto, Milton, Orillia, Montreal and Kitchener.

Fun Day in Glen Williams

By Wendi Goodhew

The Glen Minor Ball Association finally got to hold its Fund Day Oct. 3. It was windy and cold but the sun came out at noon.

A clown visited, making balloon animals for all T-ball and a few Tyke and Atoms. A fun game of pass the hula hoop and backward baseball while people were eating was played.

Fresh corn, hot dogs, hamburgers, coffee and pop were there for the asking. Trophies and pictures were presented to each team.

MVP trophies went to Ryan Hirtle, Joel Hamilton, Doug Main, Mitchell

Edwards, Matthew Hiltz, Josh Inglis, John Schira, Jesse Eno, Erin Haines, Kim La Flamme, Katie Rowland, Brandon Gabet, Devin Legate, Kevin Humeniski, Michelle Taylor, Terry Barber and Tyler Patriquin.

MIP trophies to Matthew Larter, Krystal Fendley, Kyle Taylor, Alex Simon, Andrew Lewin, Derek King, Megan Baldwin, Lannette Wilson, Susan McGilvray, Alex Main, Brian McCarsh, Carrie Burns, Sherry Walsh and Louis LeTarnec.

The Coach appreciation dance Sept. 25 saw a good crowd come out to say thanks for coaching to Patty
