What are you dressing up as for Halloween

Marc, Grade 4, Harrison Public School, Georgetown: "I'm dressing up as Venom because he's my favorite comic book hero."

Alex, Grade 4, Harrison Public School, Georgetown: "A Ninja 'cause I'm taking karate now and I really like it."

Melissa, Grade 2, Harrison Public School, Georgetown: "Jasmine from 'Aladdin.' It's a new movie and I thought it (the costume) would be something different."

Stephanie, Grade 2, Harrison Public School, Georgetown: "Three things - a cheerleader for my Brownie party, Mickey Mouse for the school party and a cat for Halloween."

Happy Halloween

Things I do for you!

I made a bracelet for you to keep.
I made chocolates for you to eat.
But you did not wear the bracelet,
You did not eat the chocolates,
You did not care at all.

By Ashley

Dear Ashley,

Thank you very much for the poem. A special thank-you for the braided bracelet. I'll put it to good use.

M.P.

WITCHWAY?

THE WITCH WANTS TO VISIT THE MAN IN THE MOON. CAN YOU HELP HER TO FIND THE WAY THROUGH THE STARS?

Four-year-old Nicholas Grasby helped Dad Bob and Mom Isabel turn their yard and house on Delrex Blvd. in Georgetown into a hauntingly Halloween-like setting. This is the eighth consecutive year the Grasby's have decorated their property for Halloween. photo by Simon Wilson/HHTW
