Halloween dance a howling success

Saturday's Halloween Dance turned out to be a nightmare for organizers. What could go wrong, did go wrong! Despite having no DJ, show up, running out of water during meal time and a few more minor catastrophes, the dance turned out to be a lot of fun!

Gerry Burgan very kindly went home to get his equipment and then was DJ., along with Daryl D'Cruz. The costumes were truly amazing!

"Best Couple" was won by Michael and Laurie Ann Wilde who came as Aliens. Dressed as a dragon and a slayer got Gerry and Sue Burgan second. Jeremy Travis as a sleazy lady in red won "Best Male", followed by Doug Pollard as Frankenstein. "Best Female" was won by Brenda Ransom, who came as very creepy Igor. Dressed as a saloon girl, Michele Thompson won second prize. Daryl D'Cruz took the "Most Original" category dressed as Dr. Giggles.

The "Scariest" went to Paul Wright as a chain man, followed by Brian Ransom as the Grim Reaper. "Best Group" was won by "Men at Work Pegdon Construction", consisting of Don and Jayne McMillan, Lois and Charlie Landoni, Wendy Martin, Mike and Jeannette Wozniak, and Don and Anne Bassett. This group even brought a snow fence to enclose their table plus a wheel barrow and other tools.

Dressed as KISS, Matt Royds, Mark Whiting, Lisa and Laura Sanderson came in second. Ursula Meyer of Erin won the door prize.

There was a coloring contest this year again that was won by table five. Bruno Carnelos did an outstanding job as bartender, as he was run off his feet all night. Thanks to all the nice folks who helped out in the kitchen and tidying up after the dance. Al Attard Sr. and Dave Buckley did a super job cleaning up on Sunday. To all who came, you are also very much appreciated.

If you haven't got your Annual Turkey Supper tickets yet for Saturday, please give Eileen McEnery a call at 877-3721, or Alma Sinclair at 877-6050. Cost is $8 for adults and $3.50 for children. Serving times are at 5, 6:15 and 7:30 p.m. This scrumptious meal comes with homemade pie. It is a truly wonderful meal, please don't miss it! Oct. 28 euchre saw eight tables. Pearl Burt won High Ladies with a score of 98, followed by Liz Creighton, who got 84. It was a score of 89 for Earl McArthur that won him High Man's, followed by Manley Dennsmore with a score of 85. Lovely sandwiches were provided by Donna Lorrigan and Helen Humphreys.

The next euchre is happening on Nov. 11, 7:30 p.m. If you could donate some sandwiches, please call Donna Hamilton at 877-4566.
