

Remembrance Day parades scheduled for Glen Williams and Georgetown

By Harry Archer

Poppy Week is now in full swing. Flags were paraded to Georgetown Mall on Monday to open our booth in the centre concourse. The booth will be selling poppies during mall hours this week.

Remembrance Dinner will be this Saturday, Nov. 6, commencing at 6 p.m. Tickets are available at the bar at a price of $7.50. Let's see a large turnout for this function. After the dinner, a mini bingo will be held in the downstairs clubroom.

The Remembrance Day parades will be held Sunday. Parade form-up times are as follows:

Glen Williams - 11:45 a.m.

Georgetown - 1 p.m.

On Thursday, Nov. 11 the parade will be from Branch 120 to Remembrance Park.

Remembrance Day services

By Harry Norton

The annual Remembrance Day parade from the Post Office to the Cenotaph will be held this Sunday. Followed by a community church service at Knox Presbyterian. All citizens and interested community groups should be at the Post Office by 10:30 p.m. to form up and parade to the Cenotaph on Mill Street.

As usual, the Ladies Auxiliary will be serving the Remembrance Day lunch for Legion members. Tickets at the bar, $5 per person. Following the dinner, a service will be held at the Cenotaph in Haltonville at 3:30 p.m. Try and join in this service that honors all those boys from Nassagawaya that gave their lives so we could have the freedom we all enjoy today.

There was a good turnout on Wednesday and Thursday for the card games and the winners were Ward Hamilton, Colin Baker and Len Lovell for bridge and

Acton Legion

Dennis Rowley, Lillian Bonfield, Warren Schenk, Jean Masales, Robert Tonelli and Glad Inglis for euchre.

I forgot to pick up the list of the Saturday meat draw but remember three things! There was a good crowd, all 13 prizes were given out and that Barry Inscoc's name was drawn for the early bird Bacon and Eggs but had to forfeit it as he had already left the Legion. Remember you have to be present to collect on the early bird draw.

General

A very successful canvas of Acton households was held last Friday. If you were out or missed, you can still get a poppy at most places of business in town.

Coming Events

Bridge, euchre and the meat draw on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. The freedom we all enjoy today.

Legion Lines

Members should assemble at the Branch at 10:30 a.m. The parade will also be attended by all the local school children.

The Ladies Auxiliary of Branch 120 have to be congratulated for the superb pub night last Friday evening. The entertainment was excellent, and the sold out crowd were also treated to a great meal. At a total cost of $5, this has to be the bargain of the year.

Oct. 29 euchre results: 1st - Lois Richardson; 2nd - Judy Bludd; 3rd - Nancy Hayes. Most Lone Hands - Myrtle Zillio. Come on out next Friday and enjoy a night of good card fun. Play starts at 8:30 and Bert Porter will be happy to welcome new players.

The Plymouth Committee will be having a meeting on Thursday, Nov. 4 in the lounge at 8 p.m.

Last Saturday's Meat

Draw and Halloween Party was well attended. The winners are as follows: The Appleyard Family carried off six prizes, followed by Neil Johnston (2), Ann Willis, Keith Ewing, Kim Becker, Shirley Lennie, Norma Lawrence, Jim Curry, Doug Imber, Eddie Plackett, John Wilson, John McClements, Doug Allen, Gail Walsh, Harry Allen, Marion McGuigan, Shirley Browne, Gerry Rodla, Viking, Wayne Richardson, Marc Lefleur, Jim Watson and Kim Becker.
