The Feminine Way - at your service

The Feminine Way Passive Reducing Salon is celebrating its 4th Anniversary at its new location, 36 Main St. S. in downtown Georgetown.

Owner Marilyn Russiani credits Margaret Vint, B.I.A. Manager, who is steadily promoting the downtown area, with finding this central space.

"It's within walking distance for many of my clients who also appreciate the lunch hour programs we can provide", says Marilyn.

The bright decor is large enough to accommodate a new private room for Dorri, whose expertise lies in facials, waxing, acrylic nail tips, makeup artistry, exotic seaweed body treatments and much more.

The new tanning area is roomy and spacious and the Hawaiian theme invites tanners to this cozy room.

The Feminine Way's clientele, who use the various exercise tables, are very happy in their newly-decorated surroundings.

Iris, an arthritis victim, thanks her husband, who found the salon two years ago, "With The Feminine Way's program and approval from my doctor, I am now walking a whole lot better".

Marilyn finds many of her ladies have rehabilitated more quickly following some types of surgery.

The half-hour Ann spends on the tables flies by as she enjoys the social camaraderie. Ruth likes to read the latest novel while exercising.

The tables help relieve stress, but her favorite is having a facial treatment at the hands of Dorri.

"The skin care is magnificent and Ruth said excitedly "I now can enjoy my Mexican holiday with very little make-up to apply after eyelash and eyebrow tinting".

Carrie walks as part of her exercise treatment and maintains the tables help to keep her muscles toned and supple.

The confusion created by moving to a new home will cause Marilyn and Dorri some mirthful moments in future weeks - such as the greeting "Honey, I'm home!" when Dorri turned a corner to find a carpet installer rather than her helpful husband!

Those at The Feminine Way are a happy family and whether you are on your lunch hour or on shift work, they can adjust their hours to suit any client's requirements.

The Feminine Way is only a phone call away at 873-4907.
