

Turner will return

This is my last newspaper column because I lost the election last week. I am not bitter about that, because I did my best. However, I am sorry and sad because I was truly honored to be an MP, and especially proud to be the Member of Parliament for Halton-Peel.

Garth Turner

Last Monday night I ended up with the most votes of any Conservative in Ontario and with the third highest count in Canada. There are now over 18,000 people in this community who, in the coming years, can say "Don't blame me, I voted Conservative!"

Believe me, you will have many occasions to repeat that. We have a majority Liberal government dedicated to spending more money, not eliminating the deficit and, inevitably, raising taxes. This is exactly what I have been fighting against for years, and will continue to oppose. This country needs less government, not more.

So, it was ironic in the election in Halton-Peel that the vast majority of voters - more than 30,000 of them - cast a ballot in support of either the Conservatives or the Reform Party, both of which advocate less government and less government spending. But by splitting the vote almost in half, these folks ended up electing Liberal. That's something we all need to reflect on, so the mistake is not repeated in future.

Now, it's time to move on. I am proud of the last five years, and intend on building on it. In Ottawa I insisted the GST money go to reduce the deficit and nothing else, and I won that battle. I ran to be prime minister on a platform of balanced budget legislation, lower taxes, help for small business and more rights for Canadians - including the right to work and the right to own property.

These are the things that Garth Turner has been promoting for the last 15 years and they don't change. This country simply cannot afford to stumble forward, going into debt, building more government and pretending that our politicians can create jobs or manage the economy. That's how we got into this mess in the first place.

In the coming months, I will be repeating this message. In the coming years, I will be fighting to see that more common sense prevails among our political leaders. I'll also be active in putting the Conservative party back together, because we need another strong, national, federalist party that stands for less government and more free enterprise.

Finally, Dorothy and I have deep thanks to give for all the experiences of the last five years and for the support you showed us. We tried hard to give you good representation. I guess the election results show it was not enough, but we truly wonder if anyone these days can fulfill the expectations of the Canadian people.

Time will tell. Meanwhile, I do not intend to leave town with my tail between my legs. Far from it - the new Liberal MP has a big job serving this big riding, and I'm going to be here to make sure he does.

Stay tuned for some more Townhall meetings, which I will pay for myself to ensure you continue to have your voices heard. And please don't hesitate to call me with any problem, concern or idea at (905) 873-8745.

As Winston Churchill said, it's not the size of the dog in the fight that matters, it's the size of the fight in the dog.
Grrrrr!
