Raiders sweet and sour

By Mike Zrostek

As quickly as the Georgetown Chrysler Raiders ended their six game losing streak, they got off on the wrong skate Saturday with a 8-5 loss at home against the Streetsville Derbys.

Friday night in Oakville, the Raiders downed the Blades 6-4 thanks to three-point nights by Ian Ellis, Trevor Elinesky and Will North.

Goalie Nick Montessano had another strong game for the Raiders stopping 38 of 42 shots he faced including 15 big third period saves.

With the loss Saturday, the Raiders are now 3-9 with seven points (one point awarded for OT loss) four behind Streetsville and Oakville.

The Raiders came out flying in the first period scoring right off the face-off as Ellis and Elinesky fed Brent Ford who popped one in eight seconds into the game for a 1-0 lead.

Ellis scored a short-handed marker four minutes later for a quick 2-0 lead. Oakville would reply at the 9:03 mark, but Ryan Brown would pump in two late third period goals for a 4-1 lead the Raiders wouldn't relinquish.

Both teams traded goals in the second as Montessano stoned the Blades in the second stopping 15 shots.

Oakville scored two power play goals in the third to narrow the Raiders lead to 5-4, but Ellis scored his 11th goal of the year into an empty net to halt the Raiders skid.

It was a totally different team Saturday, despite getting Trevor Brandt and Kris Arro back.

"Both Brandt and Arro played well, they helped the team," said head coach Gary Ford. "A couple guys that should have helped didn't, so no matter what they did it didn't matter."

Brandt was back following a suspension and immediately paid dividends assisting on the Raiders first goal by Chris Logue that tied the game at 1-1. Brandt added two goals in the third but the damage had been done.

The score was 2-1 for Streetsville after one and 5-2 after two. Paul Stinnett was pulled following the fifth Derbys goal at 8:34 of the second after stopping only 14 of 19.

"It wasn't all his (Stinnett's) fault, he let in a couple of soft ones but that's gonna happen when you face that much rubber," said Ford.

The teams exchanged goals in the third including Brent Ford scoring the last Raiders goal.

Even though the Raiders welcomed back Brandt and Arro they may have lost assistant captain Elinesky who suffered a hip injury and didn't finish the game.

Elinesky has a goal and six assists in eight games and with the Raiders playing three games this week against Hamilton, Brampton and Milton, it wouldn't help if he misses any games.

Ford stresses the Raiders have to play more consistent if they are going to have any success in games this year.

"We have eight or nine guys giving 100 per cent and five or six guys giving 60 per cent and you won't win that way. Everybody must give 100 per cent."

The Raiders were in Hamilton Tuesday; travel to Brampton Thursday, then journey to Milton Friday.

Redmen swamped

By Ellen Piehl

Special to HHTW

The Acton High School Redmen senior girls basketball team was simply outplayed by solid defense last Thursday afternoon as M.M. Robinson High School of Burlington defeated them at home 59-10.

Robinson got to the Redmen early in the game by scoring 15 points in the first quarter.

The Redmen did, however, manage to score two points before the quarter was over.

Things got even worse for the Redmen in the second quarter.

Robinson's strong offense registered another 15 points to take a 30-2 lead at the end of the first half.

The Redmen battled back a little bit late in the third quarter with a three-pointer by Janise Bailey to cut Robinson's lead to 37 points.

The Redmen scored an additional two points shortly thereafter.

At the end of the quarter, Robinson lead 45-7.

Acton scored three more points, including a bonus foul shot, in the fourth, but it wasn't enough as Robinson won the game by 49.

Top scorers for the Redmen were: Jenny Goy (5), Janise Bailey (3) and Amanda Garwood (2).

Last Saturday, the Georgetown Beaver Lumber Major Novice Raiders hockey team bottle drive was a great success as the boys worked long and hard, raising money to cover the cost of team jackets and tournament costs.

Senior Rebels cruisin' at 5-0

By Mike Zrostek

Despite missing four players, the Georgetown District High School Rebels senior boys volleyball team walked into Burlington Central High School last Thursday and disposed of last year's Halton champs 15-6 and 15-8, running their regular season record to a perfect 5-0.

The fact their record is spotless says a lot about the talent on the team, but coach Bob McKay says his squad is just getting their line-up set as the playoffs approach.

"We're finally getting our starting six set and the guys are playing great right now."

What's even more impressive about the Rebels big win, is that they called up a midget player for the game against Central.

"Jim Ogden filled in for two of the Rebels' three games and complemented the guys very well. It's the first time I can remember a midget filling in for a senior player," noted McKay.

McKay says the team is now gelling, and what a perfect time for the Rebels to do so.

With the playoffs just around the corner (after a big game against M.M. Robinson at home), GDHS appears ready to go further than the Halton playoffs.

(The match against M.M. Robinson was played Tuesday; at press time, results weren't available).

"They played an all-around good game. Serving, setting and getting the ball over, they just did it all and hopefully we'll beat M.M.," NM McKay said Monday.

With key players such as Dave Sands healthy, the excellent execution and the continued coming together of the Rebels may see them in the finals at Sheridan College in a couple of weeks.

The Rebels will host a quarter-final play-off game this coming Tuesday. If they continue on their winning ways, GDHS will play a semi-final Nov. 11, probably at home as well.

A true (yep) fish story

By Mike Leuenberger
 Special to HHTW

The Northern Pike is a fish with a dual personality as far as anglers are concerned. When small, it can be considered a pest by most fishermen. This attitude changes as the Northern Pike grows. Large pike are definite bragging rights material; a real contender for the ultimate fresh water trophy fish.

Local junior angler, 9-year-old Andres Corley was trolling on the Magnetawan River. He thought he had snagged the bottom or some rocks. His uncle cut the engine and they attempted to free his lure. When Andres' reel started peeling out at a rapid rate he knew he was not snagged and that the fight had just begun.

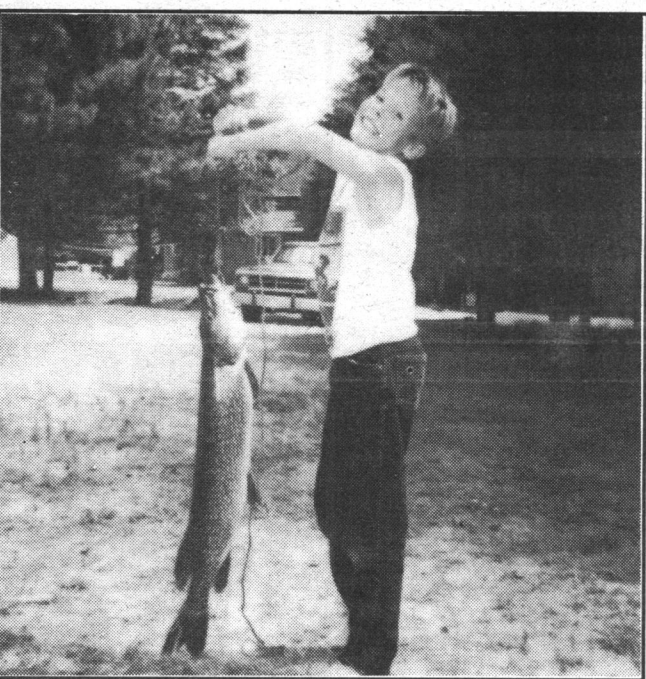

He battled with the large fish as it swam for the bottom time after time, trying to break the hook free.

The contest between the young fisherman and the mighty fish continued for 15 minutes. After a valiant fight, the Northern surrendered and was in the net.

Andres' prize weighed in a 11 pounds and was 33 inches long. He was trolling at approximately four miles an hour using light tackle and a rainbow-colored rapala.

It was this...big
